How do I know which boards and commissions have terms expiring and/or vacancies for 2009?

- An electronic copy of the 2009 Boards and Commissions book, which lists the boards and commissions with terms expiring in 2009, is available on our website at:

www.colorado/governor/boards-commissions.html

- You may also download a copy of the Boards and Commissions application through this website, which is used to apply for any state board or commission.

How may I get into contact with the Office of Boards and Commissions?

Phone: 303-866-6380
Fax: 303-866-6368
Email: boards@state.co.us

HOW do I apply?

- Complete a Boards and Commissions application
  - On the reverse side of this handout;
  - Download from our website; or
  - Contact our office and we will mail or email you an application.
- Submit it to our office along with a copy of your current resume
  - Scan and email it to: boards@state.co.us;
  - Deliver in person to the Governor's Main Office in the Capitol, room 136 in the South hallway;
  - Fax it to: 303-866-6368; or
  - Mail it to: Governor's Office of Boards and Commissions
    136 State Capitol
    Denver, CO 80203

WHEN do I apply?

- The majority of boards and commissions do not have specific application deadlines, as vacancies can occur at any time. Therefore, we highly recommend that you submit your completed application and resume to our office once you have determined you would like to seek appointment. Once processed, your application will remain on file for at least a year, to be considered when there are openings.

Are there paid positions on state boards and commissions?

- With a notable few exceptions (e.g. Parole Board, Public Utilities Commission), all board and commission positions are strictly voluntary. Thank you for volunteering your time and talents to serve the State of Colorado!
