Potential Changes to the CICP Client Application
Stakeholder's Forum
February 25, 2010

Income Type	CICP	Medicaid	Comments	Decision Point for CICP	Consensus/Response
					Yes	No	Undecided
1. Earned	Employment	Employment (excludes wages earned as a Census Bureau temporary employee)	-Per previous discussion, if CICP providers had access to DOL data, paystubs unnecessary.	1. Should employment income be self-declared?
2. Unearned	a. Unemployment b. Court ordered alimony c. Social Security benefits (SSI, SSDI, Survivors benefit) d. Retirement Plan payments e. Trust Accounts f. Rental Property Income g. Commissions, Bonuses, Gifts & Tips h. Monetary settlements unrelated to medical i. Revocable Insurance policies j. Monetary gains from sale of an asset k. n/a l. OAP- financial m. Expense Income n. In-Kind Income (Solely the value of goods & services received as a substitute for monetary payments)	a. Unemployment (excludes add'l $25 per wk enacted thru 2009 American Recovery Act) b. Court ordered alimony (less $50.00) c. Social Security benefits d. Retirement Plan payments e. Trust Accounts f. Rental Property Income g. Commissions, Bonuses, & Tips h. Monetary settlements unrelated to medical i. Revocable Insurance policies j. Monetary gains from sale of an asset k. Child support (less $50.00) l. n/a m. n/a n. n/a	- Medicaid does not count monetary gifts - DHS has authority to view DOL data	1. Should Expense income continue to be considered? (Decision made per discussion at last Stakeholder's meeting)		X
				2. Should consideration of In-Kind Income continue? (Per discussion at last Stakeholders' meeting)		X
				3. Should the consideration of Gifts as Unearned Income continue?
				4. Should SSI, SSDI, Survivor's benefits continue to be considered? (No retroactive lump sum payments considered, only monthly benefit)
				5. Should CICP count Child Support received as income?

Potential Changes to the CICP Client Application
Stakeholder's Forum
February 25, 2010

Income Type	CICP	Medicaid	Comments	Decision Point for CICP	Consensus/Response
					Yes	No	Undecided
3. Self-Employment	List monthly Business Expenses to calculate Net Profit from Self Employment. Expenses include: a. Business rent/mortgage b. Gross Labor Wages c. Business Taxes paid d. Utilities paid for business e. Equipment/supply costs f. Merchandise/purchases /cost of goods g. Advertising h. License/ Certification fees paid i. Legal fees j. Fuel/gas for business-related travel k. Other Business expenses	List monthly Business Expenses to calculate Net Profit from Self Employment. Expenses include: a. Business rent/mortgage b. Gross Labor Wages c. Business Taxes paid d. Utilities paid for business e. Equipment/supply costs f. Merchandise/purchases /cost of goods g. Advertising h. License/ Certification fees paid i. Legal fees j. Fuel/gas for business-related travel k. Other Business expenses	- Self-declaration of expenses is acceptable by CICP and Medicaid. - If CICP applicant can document that they are paying themselves, omit expense declaration. - Medicaid accepts ledgers or receipts as verification of self-employment. - CICP allows self - declaration of gross income.	1. Should self-employment income be self-declared?
				2. Should the ability to self-declare expenses continue?

Potential Changes to the CICP Client Application
Stakeholder's Forum
February 25, 2010

Income Type	CICP	Medicaid	Comments	Decision Point for CICP	Consensus/Response
					Yes	No	Undecided
4. Resources	a. Vehicle Equity (less $4,500) b. Second Vehicle c. Property other than primary residence and land d. Real property e. Liquid Resources (less $2,500 per household member) f. Checking/Savings accounts/CDs g. Business Equity (less $50,000) h. n/a i. Partnership earnings kept in reserve	a. Vehicle – exempt if used to: 1) Obtain medical treatment 2) Handicap equipped 3) Used to obtain employment b. Second Vehicle c. Second Home or co-owned property d. Real property e. Cash or Assets > $2,000 f. Checking/Savings accounts/ CDs g. n/a h. Promissory notes i. n/a		1. Should primary vehicle have exemptions similar to Medicaid?
				2. Should only liquid resources be counted?
				3. Should asset test be eliminated?
				4. Can we simplify resource verification by eliminating items such as business equity, partnership earnings, and real property that is not part of a business?

Income Type	CICP	Medicaid	Comments	Decision Point for CICP	Consensus/Response
					Yes	No	Undecided
5. Deductions	Applicants may self-declare the following deductions: Elderly Care Day Care Paid Alimony Child Support Payments Health Insurance Premium(s) Documented proof of the following deductions are allowed: Outstanding Medical Bills Paid Medical Bills	a. $200 monthly Dependent Care per person under age 2 b. $175 monthly Dependent Care per person age 2 and over c. Health Insurance Premium(s) d. Medical expenses (documented) e. $90 standard work expense for each employed individual		1. Should the ability to self-declare deductions remain?
				2. Should the CICP deductions mirror Medicaid?
				3. Should the CICP eliminate the deduction for paid alimony?
				4. Should the CICP eliminate the deduction for paid child support?
				5. Should the CICP add a deduction for transportation mileage used in the course of performing a job? (i.e. CDASS workers)
				6. Should the CICP add a standard deduction for an employee that works?			