COLORADO JUVENILE PAROLE BOARD	POLICY NUMBER: I-119 PAGE: 1 of 1 REPLACES: 137e Dated: 8-13-2003
CHAPTER: Policies	EFFECTIVE DATE: April 18, 2007
SUBJECT: Post Commitment Parole Hearings	RELATED MANDATES, STATUTES, STANDARDS, OR EXECUTIVE ORDERS:
APPROVED BY: _____ Dean J. Conder, Acting Chairperson

POLICY/PROCEDURE

1. If the hearing panel unanimously (or a majority of the full Board) decides that it would have been in the best interest of the juvenile or the public for the youth's commitment to have been extended by the court rather than beginning Post Commitment parole, it shall indicate "Parole with Prejudice" on the Hearing Panel Disposition and a reasons shall be written on the form.

2. If the parole address changes after the hearing is held, but prior to the effective date of the parole, the parole officer must submit a new Parole Plan and Home Inspection Report prior to the beginning of the parole. The new Parole Plan should include an explanation of the change.

3. The hearing panel may designate the Initial parole placement to be the youth's current placement.

4. The post commitment parole period shall begin on the date the commitment ends, regardless of whether or not a post commitment parole hearing has been held. A youth's Client Manager/Parole Officer should, however, make a reasonable attempt to schedule a Post Commitment parole hearing prior to the end of the youth's commitment. If that is not possible, a hearing should be scheduled as soon as possible after the end of commitment. The mandatory parole period shall be established as six months; however, such youths may be subject to parole extension pursuant to JPB Policy I-111 – Extension of Parole Supervision.

5. The Board shall not conduct a violation hearing regarding any post commitment parole youth who has not received his/her conditions of parole from a hearing panel/Board, nor consider allegations of violation of parole that occurred prior to the youth receiving his/her conditions of parole.
