

SUMMARY

In 2005, liquor stores accounted for 29.8% of reported sale-to-minor violations

- Convenience stores had 19.2% of the violations

In 2006, liquor stores accounted for 32.7% of reported sale-to-minor violations

- Convenience stores had 15.6% of the violations

In 2007, liquor stores accounted for 26.6% of reported sale-to-minor violations

- Convenience stores had 15.8% of the violations

In 2008, liquor stores accounted for 26.0% of reported sale-to-minor violations

- Convenience stores had 16.4% of the violations

In 2009 liquor stores accounted for 33% of reported sale-to-minor violations

- Convenience Stores has a 7.6% of the violations

DETAILS OF ANALYSIS

Information is from Liquor Enforcement Division "Report of Enforcement Actions" for both state and local licensing authorities for the years 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, and 2009

- In 2005 there were a total of 312 sale to minor violations, of which 93 were committed by liquor stores, 60 by convenience stores
- In 2006 there were a total of 422 sale to minor violations, of which 138 were committed by liquor stores, 66 by convenience stores
- In 2007 there were a total of 519 sale to minor violations, of which 138 were committed by liquor stores, 82 by convenience stores
- In 2008 there were a total of 427 sale to minor violations, of which 111 were committed by liquor stores, 70 by convenience stores
- In 2009 there were a total of 357 sale to minor violations, of which 118 were committed by liquor stores, 27 by Convenience stores