2 SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly
3 hereby finds and declares that in 2011 alone:

4 (a) Fifteen and a half percent of high school students in Colorado
5 carried a weapon to school in the previous thirty days;

6 (b) There were more than thirty-four thousand juvenile arrests in 7 Colorado;

8 (c) Four hundred thirty-one juveniles were arrested for weapons
9 violations, and more than thirty-five hundred juveniles were arrested for 10 drug violations;

11 (d) Nearly twenty-five percent of high school students in Colorado 12 were involved in fights during the previous year; and

13 (e) Sixty-seven thousand young people in Colorado ages eighteen
14 to twenty-four were unemployed, not attending school, and had no degree 15 beyond a high school diploma.

16 (2) The general assembly also finds that the Tony Grampsas youth
17 services program was established in 1994 to provide statewide funding 18 for community-based programs that target youth and their families for 19 intervention services in an effort to reduce incidents of youth crime and 20 violence. Further, the Tony Grampsas youth services program was 21 established to promote prevention and education programs that are 22 designed to reduce the occurrence and reoccurrence of child abuse and 23 neglect and to reduce the need for state intervention in those cases.

24 (3) Therefore, the general assembly declares that it is in the best
25 interests of the people of Colorado to develop a comprehensive state plan 26 for youth development in order to quantify existing and needed services

1 and to align existing limited resources to help promote positive youth 2 development.

3 (4) The general assembly further finds that it is in the best interest 4 of the people of Colorado for the department of human services to 5 coordinate prevention and intervention programs and to oversee the 6 provision of these services to ensure collaboration among communities
7 and programs, with the goal of ensuring the availability of a continuum
8 of services for youth.
