

Opportunities for Trade & Investment with Japan
Friday, October 24, 2008; 8:00 – 10:00 a.m.

Join the WTC Denver, the Colorado International Trade Office and the Japan America Society of Colorado for a Japan trade and investment update featuring Consul General Kazuaki Kubo from the Consulate General of Japan in Denver; Laura Jackson, Senior Director, Aviation Planning for Denver International Airport; Isao Kamitani, President, RJ&L International Consulting LLC; and Mike Driver, Trade & Investment Director for Asia, Colorado International Trade Office. A vibrant, prosperous country with the world's second largest economy, Japan has long been one of Colorado's leading trade partners. Japanese consumers spend hundreds of billions of dollars on food, clothing, travel, entertainment and a wide variety of other consumer goods and services each year. The average Japanese household has over $100,000 in savings, and disposable income of about $4,000 per month and Japan is the largest overseas market for U.S. exporters with imports from the U.S. exceeding $62 billion in 2007. Cost: free for WTC and JASC members and $10 for non-members. To register and for more information please Call 303-592-5760; E-mail: wtcdenver@att.net; Visit: www.wtcdenver.com.
