Fact Sheet

Murphree Colorado CAPCO (MCC) is a small business venture fund which invests in Colorado based companies. MCC is certified by the State of Colorado as a Certified Capital Company (CAPCO) and was allocated just over $6.25 million from the statewide pool. MCC is dedicated to strengthening Colorado businesses and supporting Colorado's economic development. We have a strong and established investing presence in Colorado. MCC is headquartered in Colorado Springs and has extensive contacts throughout Colorado to access deal flow and assist portfolio companies.

MCC partners with companies and talented entrepreneurs to help them succeed by backing them with a depth and breadth of operational experience. We bring value to their businesses and support them with the resources of the entire MCC team, including our breadth of industry and strategic contacts. Companies trust MCC both as a partner committed to building world-class companies and as a valuable resource capable of turning business vision into reality.

INVESTMENT CRITERIA

We seek investment situations generally meeting the following set of criteria:

Types: Primarily debt of up to 24 to 36 months, with equity participations.

Investment Size: Average $500,000.

Location: Statewide! We truly are interested in investing in Colorado-based businesses throughout the state.

Stage: Companies with established revenue streams, at or near profitability.

Management: Experienced and ethical management teams, clearly focused strategy, with proven industry knowledge.

Product/Service: Identifiable benefits from converging industry, economic and demographic trends.

Please do not include non-disclosure agreements as part of your package, as we will not sign them, and will have to return your plan unread.

Murphree Colorado CAPCO is happy to provide feedback on business plans or guidance as you prepare your plan. If you have questions or concerns about what to include in your plan, feel free to contact us.
