

Asia Food Expo
Manila, Philippines
September 5-8, 2007
Deadline: July 30

Asia Food Expo, held annually in Manila, is the Philippines' largest exhibition featuring food and beverage products and the latest food processing equipment. Asia Food Expo 2006 welcomed 486 exhibiting companies and 38,000 registered local and international trade buyers and visitors. The Philippines is a key market in Southeast Asia for U.S. agricultural exports, with sales reaching $924 million in 2006. Products with the best market prospects include bakery, snack food and beverage ingredients and additives, natural and healthy food products, dairy consumer products and ingredients, pet food, juices, wines, beef, tree nuts, and dried fruits.

For more information, please contact Sharon Cook at USDA via e-mail Sharon.Cook@usda.gov or via telephone at (202) 720-3425.