

Income Tax - Electronic Filing (FSEF)

I filed my Colorado income tax return electronically with a tax professional or on my own using computer software that I purchased. I have not received an acknowledgement/confirmation that the return was received. What can I do?

Contact your tax professional or software company to determine the status of your electronic filing acknowledgment or confirmation.