Sales Tax - Special District Tax

Do special district taxes collected by the state have a service fee?

Yes. Some of the state collected special district taxes administered by the state do allow a service fee. Some of these special district taxes include the Regional Transportation District (RTD), Local Improvement District (LID), and Mass Transit District.

However, the Rural Transportation Authority (RTA) and Local Marketing Special Districts do not allow a service fee. See DRP 1002 "Colorado Sales and Use Tax Rates" for a complete listing of service fees and amounts allowed.
