Income Tax - Setting Up An e-File Account

How do tax professionals set up an account so they can e-file federal and state income tax returns for their clients?

All tax preparers who are accepted by the IRS to e-file federal returns are automatically accepted to e-file Colorado state returns through the IRS. They must be able to send returns to the Ogden Service Center and use tax software that is accepted by Colorado.