Signed into Law
Bill Number: HB 09-1018 Sponsors: Rep. Bradford Sen. Spence The act removes obsolete statutory language based on implementation of the Statewide Colorado Voter Registration and Elections System (SCORE), in compliance with the federal Help America Vote Act (HAVA). Specifically, the act eliminates instructions for transmitting voter information to the Secretary of State by county clerk and recorders, since such information is now entered directly into the SCORE system rather than being maintained in separate county databases. The act contains new instructions for transferring voter registration records between counties when a voter registers to vote in another county, based on the types of information provided by the voter. The act also contains new instructions to county clerk and recorders for cancelling older registrations of voters who are registered multiple times, based on use of the SCORE system.	Short Title: SCORE System and HAVA Compliance Status: Signed into Law Appropriations: The act may result in increased costs to county clerks for mailings and notices sent before cancelling a voter's registration record.
Bill Number: HB 09-1153 Sponsors: Rep. May Sen. Harvey The act exempts issue committees from registering with election officials until they accept or make contributions of more than $200 to support or oppose any ballot issue or ballot question. The registration must occur within ten calendar days of the contribution transaction. Current law requires issue committees to register before accepting or making contributions. The act establishes a set of criteria to determine when a matter is to be considered a ballot issue or ballot question, thereby necessitating compliance with campaign disclosure and reporting requirements by issue committees. Municipal annexations are not considered ballot issues or questions under the act until notice of the annexation election has been published. The act requires such notice to inform the public that issue committees are required by law to register with election officials within ten calendar days of making contributions or expenditures of at least $200 to support or oppose the annexation question.	Short Title: Formation Issue Committees Fair Campaign Practices Act Status: Signed into Law Appropriations: The act is assessed as having no fiscal impact.
Bill Number: HB 09-1186 Sponsors: Rep. Levy Sen. Carroll M. The act allows a mail-in voter to drop off his or her mail ballot on election day at any polling place in the county in which the voter is registered to vote. Under the act, mail-in voters are still allowed to drop off mail-in ballots at early polling places during the early voting period, as provided in current law. The act also increases from five to ten the number of mail-in ballots that a person may mail or deliver on behalf of other voters.	Short Title: Contents & Deliver of Mail Ballots Status: Signed into Law Appropriations: The act may result in increased costs for counties associated with the purchase of additional ballot boxes.

The act makes a number of changes to conform to the implementation of the Statewide Colorado Voter Registration and Elections (SCORE) system and permanent mail-in voting. The act requires county clerks to mail a notice for verification of an active voter's address to those active voters whose mail-in ballot has been returned as undeliverable, and to mark those who fail to respond as inactive, thus conforming the law to the current practice with mail ballots. The act also requires county clerks who receive verification that the voter whose mail or mail-in ballot was returned as undeliverable lives in a different county to forward the address information to the county clerk of the new resident county. The act removes the need to affirm an address on the self-affirmation portion of return envelopes for mail and mail-in ballots, and allows applications for mail-in ballots to be filed earlier than January 1 preceding an election. The act clarifies that an unaffiliated voter may participate in a primary election upon openly declaring an affiliation to the election judge. The act also allows those who have been issued a mail-in ballot to vote at a polling place or vote center by provisional ballot by affirming under oath that the mail-in ballot will not be cast. Finally, the act conforms treatment of ballots for permanent mail-in voters by county clerks to current practices associated with absentee ballots.	Appropriations: The act will result in increased costs at the local level for additional postage due to an additional mailing to voters whose mail-in ballots are returned as undeliverable, the need to print additional ballots for those who surrender their mail-in ballots and vote in person, and increased processing to ensure those who surrender mail-in ballots and vote in person do not also request replacement mail-in ballots. These costs are not quantified.

Bill Number: HB 09-1205

Short Title: Voting by Overseas Armed Forces

Sponsors: *Reps. Looper and Balmer
Sen. Williams*

Status: Awaiting Governor's Signature

The bill requires the Secretary of State, in coordination with county clerk and recorders, to develop an Internet-based voting pilot program to facilitate voting by military personnel serving outside the United States, starting with the 2012 general election. The bill requires the Secretary of State to select one or more political subdivisions to participate in the pilot program. Under the bill, the system used to implement the pilot program must:

- transmit encrypted information over a secure network;
- securely identify and authenticate information transmitted on the system, as well as local election officials and electronic equipment used by the Secretary of State and local officials in the conduct of elections via the Internet;
- protect the privacy, anonymity, and integrity of each voter's ballot;
- prevent a voter from casting multiple ballots over the Internet in an election;
- protect against abuse, including tampering, fraudulent use, and illegal manipulation by electors, election officials, or other individuals or groups; and
- provide uninterrupted Internet availability for the purpose of casting votes on-line by voters.

The bill requires local election officials participating in the pilot program to:

- assure that each voter participating in the pilot program is eligible and registered to vote;
- verify the identity of participating voters logging in to vote;
- verify the privacy and security of votes transmitted over the Internet, and verify that the votes have not been viewed or altered during transmission;
- verify the timeliness of the votes cast over the Internet; and
- verify that all votes cast through the pilot program were counted and correctly attributed to the voter who cast the vote.

To fund the pilot program, the bill creates the Internet-based Voting Pilot Program Fund, consisting of public and private gifts, grants, and donations. The bill allows the Department of State to implement the pilot program voting system only if sufficient moneys are obtained to cover the costs of implementation.

Appropriations:

The bill requires increased expenditures of $392,500 in FY 2011-12, and $92,500 in FY 2012-13, to be covered by gifts, grants, and donations. The costs are associated with voting system software; contracts for planning, coordination, and management; data center equipment and web hosting; and voter outreach.

Additional provisions in the bill allow overseas military personnel to:

- register to vote by emergency registration after discharge from active duty within 29 days prior to an election if the voter is a resident of Colorado, moved to a new county after close of the registration books, and will not cast a vote in another county or state;
- receive a mail-in ballot electronically if the voter timely filed a mail-in ballot application or has been placed on the permanent mail-in voter list, and requested receipt of the ballot electronically; and
- have mail-in ballots counted if cast and received by local election officials within deadlines established by HB 09-1205.

Bill Number: HB 09-1015 Sponsors: Rep. Murray Sen. Hodge	Short Title: Conduct of Primary Elections Status: Senate Second Reading
The reengrossed bill, as amended by the Senate State, Veterans, and Military Affairs Committee, allows a designated election official to cancel an uncontested primary election and declare the sole candidate to be the party nominee for the specified office in the general election. To qualify, the primary must be uncontested as of 60 days before the election. The bill requires the moneys saved as the result of a primary's cancellation to be held in reserve by a county for use in conducting future elections. The bill also allows primary elections to be conducted as mail ballot elections, subject to the following requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • designated election officials must notify the Secretary of State of the mail ballot primary election at least 120 days before the election, and must forward a plan for conducting the election; • the Secretary of State must post notice of a primary election conducted by mail ballot on its web site; • a county clerk and recorder conducting a primary election by mail ballot must mail a notice by forwardable mail to each unaffiliated active registered eligible voter and each unaffiliated registered eligible voter whose registration has been marked "inactive - failed to vote" for failure to vote in a general election. The notice must inform the unaffiliated voter of the need to affiliate with a political party in order to vote in the primary election, and must include a returnable portion allowing the voter to request a party affiliation. The bill also requires current notice requirements of mail ballot elections by publication to include notice to unaffiliated voters of the ability to affiliate with a political party and vote in a pending mail ballot primary election; • a mail ballot packet must be mailed to each active registered voter affiliated with a political party, including those whose registration records have been marked "inactive - failed to vote"; • there must be at least one drop-off location for mail ballots in each county for each multiple of 30,000 affiliated active registered voters, and the drop-off locations must be arrayed throughout the county in a manner that provides the greatest convenience to the voters. The number and location of these drop-off locations must be approved by the Secretary of State; 	Appropriations: The bill is expected to require a one-time expenditure of $23,635 from the Department of State Cash Fund to pay for modifications to the Statewide Colorado Registration and Elections (SCORE) system. The bill may also result in potential cost savings for counties.

Bill Number: HB 09-1160

Short Title: Secure Electronic Voter Information

Sponsors: Rep. Miklosi
Sen. Bacon

Status: Consideration of Senate Amendments

The reengrossed bill allows a person to register to vote by completing a form on the Secretary of State's web site if the person's signature is stored in digital form by the Department of State, or is accessible to the department via the Statewide Voter Registration and Election (SCORE) system database or certain databases maintained by the Department of Revenue. The bill also allows a registered voter to change his or her residence on the registration record, change or withdraw an affiliation, apply for permanent mail-in ballot status, or make a change to an existing mail-in ballot status by completing a form on the Secretary of State's website.

The bill requires the form for registering to vote on-line to contain certain information pertaining to the registrant's eligibility to vote, as well as a self-affirmation that the registrant is qualified to register. In addition, the bill incorporates current requirements for making changes to residential information, affiliation, and mail-in ballot status into the on-line forms for doing so, and requires submission of a birth date and the last four digits of the voter's social security number to make these changes. Under the bill, a county clerk and recorder must verify the electronic signature of an individual registering to vote online, and when changes are made to a registered elector's residence information, affiliation, and mail-in ballot status. For address changes, the bill requires the county clerk and recorder to send a nonforwardable postcard to the old address giving notice of the change of address and requesting the voter to contact the clerk and recorder if the voter does not wish to change the address.

Under the bill, on-line voter registrations and changes are applicable to an election if performed at least 29 days before the election. The bill requires the Secretary of State to make the electronic forms available to the public on its website by April 1, 2010.

Appropriations:

The bill will require an estimated expenditure of $120,299 by the departments of State and Revenue from the Department of State Cash Fund to cover web site development and database changes. The bill will result in increased postage costs for counties, which are expected to be offset by decreased costs for data entry associated with migrating certain functions to the Internet.

Ballot and petition information. The reengrossed bill, as amended by the Senate State, Veterans, and Military Affairs Committee, requires certain information to appear on statewide ballots and petition forms for statewide ballot issues. Specifically, the bill requires: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ballots to identify a ballot issue proposing a change to the state constitution as an "amendment," and a ballot issue proposing a change to statutes as a "proposition." The bill also requires the current explanation appearing at the top of each ballot to explain the difference between an amendment and a proposition; • initiated amendments to appear first on ballots, followed by referred amendments, initiated propositions, and referred propositions. The order of local ballot questions remains the same. The bill strikes a requirement to order ballot measures within each category by type; • a change in the numbering for statewide measures on the ballot to differentiate between initiated and referred measures, with further differentiation between constitutional amendments and changes to statute; • a ballot title appearing on the ballot to be preceded by an indication of whether the ballot issue changes the state constitution or statutes, along with the measure's assigned numbers or letters; and • the statement at the top of each page of an initiative petition to contain a statement that signing the petition indicates support for including the proposed change to either the state constitution or statutes on the ballot, and that a sufficient number of signatures will result in the issue appearing on the ballot. 	Appropriations: The bill requires an appropriation of $104,400 to the Department of State from the Department of State Cash Fund to cover modifications to the Statewide Colorado Voter Registration and Elections (SCORE) system, development of the training program for petition circulators required by the bill, and the referral of cases concerning petition entity license revocations to an administrative law judge. Costs may also increase for local governments due to the need to print and mail larger ballots as a result of the bill's addition of certain language to ballots.

Initiative deadlines. The bill makes the following deadline changes with respect to initiatives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the date for the last possible title board meeting prior to an election is moved to the third Wednesday in April, one month earlier than current law; • a ballot petition, along with any signature addendums, must be filed with the Secretary of State at least three weeks earlier than under current law, or at least three months and three weeks prior to the election; and • a request for withdrawal of an initiative petition must be filed with the Secretary of State no later than 60 days prior to the election, up from 33 days. Signature withdrawal. HB 09-1326 allows a voter who has signed an initiative petition to withdraw the signature by filing a written request with the Secretary of State on or before the day the petition is filed with the secretary. Once a petition has been deemed sufficient, the bill requires the Secretary of State to make the petition available to the public for copying. The bill makes it illegal to pay a voter to withdraw his or her name from a petition. Petition circulation affidavit and notarization. The bill contains a legislative declaration cataloguing alleged abuses of the petition circulation process during recent election cycles. The bill includes additional affirmations applicable to petition circulators in the affidavit attached to petition sections that relate to the bill's provisions. The bill changes the requirements for notarizing the affidavit as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • requires a petition circulator to be in the physical presence of a notary public when notarizing the affidavit; • requires the circulator to date the affidavit and provide required personal information before notarization; and • requires the circulator to present identification to the notary public before notarization, which the notary must note on the affidavit.

The bill invalidates affidavits that are notarized in violation of the notarization requirements, or if the dates signed by a circulator and a notary public on an affidavit are different, and forbids the Secretary of State from accepting affidavits not in compliance with these requirements. The bill criminalizes certifying an affidavit in violation of these notarization requirements. Signing, as a circulator, an affidavit for a petition section containing signatures not affixed in the circulator's presence, and circulation of a petition section by a person other than the person who signed that section's affidavit are also crimes under the bill. The fine for violating these and other provisions of initiative and referendum law is increased by the bill from $500 to $1,500. Petition circulator training. House Bill 09-1326 requires petition circulators who collect more than 100 signatures to undergo training established by the Secretary of State related to fraud, abuse, and mistakes in the circulation process. The bill allows the training to be conducted by the Secretary of State or any person who has completed the secretary's training, and requires the secretary to provide training by any means deemed effective. Under the bill, proponents of petitions for which circulators of petitions containing more than 100 signatures are trained are required to maintain records regarding the training. Signatures collected in violation of the training provisions are deemed invalid by the bill. Petition circulator compensation. The bill makes it unlawful for a person to pay a petition circulator more than 20 percent of his or her compensation for circulation on a per signature or petition section basis. Petition entity licensing. The bill requires a petition entity, defined as an entity that provides compensation for ballot petition circulation, to acquire a license from the Secretary of State. The following are grounds for denial of a license by the Secretary of State: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the secretary finding that the petition entity or a principal has been found in a judicial or administrative proceeding to have violated certain petition laws of Colorado or another state; • the petition entity failing to agree not to pay circulators on a per signature or petition section basis; and • no current representative of the petition entity having completed the Secretary of State's circulator training.

The Secretary of State is required by the bill to revoke a petition license if a petition entity falls out of compliance with these requirements, or authorizes or knowingly permits certain proscribed activities. The bill sets the license revocation period for initial violations at 90 to 180 days, and the period for subsequent violations at 180 days to one year. The bill also allows a petition entity to apply for reinstatement of a revoked license upon expiration of the term of revocation, and allows the Secretary of State to consider certain factors in making a reinstatement determination. The bill requires the secretary to charge a fee for the petition license. Licensed petition entities are also required to register with the Secretary of State by providing the ballot titles of measures for which petitions will be circulated by the entity, along with the entity's address, contact, and designated agent information. Petition circulators reporting. The bill requires proponents of a petition, or an issue committee acting on the proponents' behalf, to maintain a list of the names and addresses of circulators who circulated the petition and notaries public who notarized petition sections, along with petition section numbers associated with the circulators and notaries. A copy of the list must be filed with the Secretary of State along with the petition, and the list becomes a public document. If the list is not filed, the bill requires the Secretary of State to prepare the list and charge the proponents a fee. The bill also changes reporting requirements to election officials by petition proponents to require reporting of dates of petition circulation by paid circulators, and the total number of hours paid circulators spent circulating petitions. Protest of petition sufficiency. House Bill 09-1326 establishes that a district court has jurisdiction to consider a protest challenging the Secretary of State's determination of a petition's sufficiency without further agency action. The bill states that grounds for challenging signature sufficiency include fraud or violations of initiative and referendum law by persons involved in the petition circulation process, the use of a noncompliant petition form, and improprieties related to the statutorily prescribed duties of a circulator or notary public. The bill allows a district court to consider all signatures in a random sample if a protest is limited to an allegation of defects in the Secretary of State's statement of sufficiency based on a random sample. The bill also allows the pursuit of attorney fees and costs by the complainant if the district court determines fraud committed by a person involved in the petition circulation process resulted in invalid signatures or petition sections. A complainant or a defendant must be awarded attorney fees and costs if a protest or defense is determined to have lacked substantial justification.

The reengrossed bill transitions Colorado to a paper-based voting system by the 2014 general election. Voting system use and purchase. The bill states the General Assembly's intention to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • require any voting system purchased by a political subdivision between the bill's effective date and the 2014 general election to be paper-based; • suspend acquisition of electronic voting systems in order to assess existing and emerging voting technologies; and • discourage investment by political subdivisions before the 2014 general election in technologies that will frustrate the intent of the General Assembly. The bill allows political subdivisions to continue to use existing electronic voting devices and related components that were used during the 2008 general election as long as the equipment is used in accordance with conditions of use under which it was certified for the 2008 election, or in accordance with alternate conditions established by the Secretary of State (secretary). Going forward, the bill requires prior approval of the secretary to purchase new electronic voting equipment. To make such a purchase, the bill requires a political subdivision to submit a written application to the secretary, which the secretary must approve or deny within three business days after receipt. In reviewing the application and making a determination regarding the purchase, the secretary is required to prevent political subdivisions from investing in technologies that will frustrate the intent of the General Assembly, and in doing so must consider relevant factors including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • whether the purchase replaces damaged equipment or accommodates a population increase; • whether the purchase requires a new contract; and • a comparison of the purchase with the political subdivision's annual capital expenditures on elections, in order to discourage a technology investment with a limited useful life. 	Appropriations: The bill is assessed as having no fiscal impact. The Department of State can accomplish the bill's rule-making and other requirements within existing appropriations. The bill requires the secretary to promulgate rules regarding the purchase of electronic voting systems. The bill also allows the secretary to require by rule that voting equipment satisfy voting systems standards promulgated by the Federal Election Commission after January 1, 2008, so long as the standards meet or exceed the commission's 2002 standards.

Under current law, political subdivisions seeking to modify previously certified electronic and electromechanical voting systems must have the modification certified by the secretary. HB 09-1335 requires the secretary to make a preliminary examination of a proposed modification, and either approve the modification or conduct a further review of the modification based on the likelihood of the modification causing adverse effects.

Voter-verifiable paper record. Current law requires voting systems used in elections on or after January 1, 2010, to be able to produce a voter-verifiable paper record of each vote. HB 09-1335 grants political subdivisions that have not complied with this requirement by January 1, 2009, until January 1, 2014, to comply with the requirement.

Voting system certification and testing. The bill requires the secretary to certify qualifying electronic and electromechanical voting systems, establish standards for certification, and approve the purchase, installation, and use of the systems by political subdivisions. Under the bill, the secretary may establish conditions of use for these voting systems by political subdivisions to correct deficiencies identified during certification. In undertaking electronic and electromechanical voting system certification, the bill allows the secretary to:

- consider procedures used or adopted by county clerks or best practices recommended by equipment vendors;
- request a federally accredited laboratory to undertake system testing;
- use and rely upon system testing already performed by another state or a federally accredited laboratory, conditioned upon the secretary and public having access to information relied upon for the testing, and the secretary determining that the testing was conducted in accordance with appropriate engineering standards and satisfies system requirements and standards under current state law; and
- conduct joint testing with an agency of another state or a federally accredited laboratory.

The bill states its intent to move the state toward an election auditing process developed with the assistance of statistical experts and relying on risk-limiting audits. Under the bill, counties must use a risk-limiting audit following each primary, general, coordinated, or congressional vacancy election, starting with the 2014 general election. The bill requires the secretary to establish procedures for selecting races to be audited, and makes all contested races eligible for selection. Upon written application, the secretary may waive these risk-based auditing requirements if a county shows that the technology it uses will not enable the county to satisfy the requirements in preparation for the 2014 general election. Prior to the 2010 primary election, the bill requires the secretary to establish a pilot program in selected counties to test the procedures and technical requirements necessary for conducting a risk-limiting audit. Active Bills (Cont.)
Bill Number: HB 09-1357 Sponsors: Rep. Vigil Sen. Schwartz The introduced bill requires certain campaign finance reports that are filed with county clerk and recorders under current law to instead be filed with the Secretary of State. The filing requirement applies to candidates and committees in special district elections, and any other candidates or committees unless otherwise specified by law. The bill requires applicable data filed with or under the control of county clerk and recorders to be transferred to the Secretary of State. The bill also requires each county clerk and recorder to maintain a copy of any required campaign finance report or statement filed with his or her office for a period of one year or, for candidates who are elected, for one year after the candidate leaves public office. Under the bill, campaign finance filings for municipal elections will continue to be filed with municipal clerks. The bill removes from law a requirement that county clerk and recorders be reimbursed by the state to help defray the cost of implementing campaign finance law.	Short Title: Filing Campaign Finance Reports with Secretary of State Status: House State, Veterans, and Military Affairs Appropriations: The bill is expected to increase the Department of State's expenditures by $206,053 in FY 2010-11 in order to cover costs associated with increased staffing needed to process filings formerly processed by counties. Associated operating expenses will also increase under the bill. Counties will see a decrease in costs under the bill.
Bill Number: HCR 09-1005 Sponsors: Rep. May Sen. Carroll M. The introduced concurrent resolution places on the ballot for the next election a constitutional amendment to replace the current Reapportionment Commission with the Independent Redistricting Commission. If passed, the amendment would require the commission to redistrict the General Assembly and Congressional districts. Currently, the Reapportionment Commission is responsible for redistricting the General Assembly, and the General Assembly is responsible for redistricting Congressional districts. Under the resolution, the membership of the Independent Redistricting Commission is reduced to 9 members from the Reapportionment Commission's 11, consisting of the following appointments: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 4 members appointed by the General Assembly; • 2 members appointed by the Governor; and • 3 members appointed by the commission's 6 other members from a pool of 28 persons nominated by the Supreme Court Nominating Commission, of which 10 are from each of the two largest political parties and the remaining 8 have been unaffiliated for the previous 3 years and have voted in the previous 2 general elections. 	Short Title: Independent Redistricting Commission General Assembly Congress Status: House State, Veterans, and Military Affairs Appropriations: The resolution may result in cost savings of $239,112 during redistricting years due to elimination of the need for a special legislative session and interim committee for Congressional redistricting.

Bill Number: SB 09-087 Sponsors: Sen. Carroll, M. Rep. Peniston The bill concerns increased accountability requirements for special districts. One provision of the reengrossed bill, as amended by the House Committee on Local Government, requires a designated election official of a metropolitan district, when the board of directors of the district is conducting an election, to mail a mail-in ballot to each eligible voter on a list of voters who have applied for permanent mail-in voter status. The bill requires the designated election official to coordinate with the clerk and recorder of the county or counties in which the district is situated to acquire this list at least 60 days prior to the election. These requirements are placed only on metropolitan districts that collect revenue above a specific threshold. Each year, the bill also requires a board of directors of a special district to provide notice to eligible voters that includes certain information about the district, including information about its elections and applying for permanent mail-in voter status.	Short Title: Special Districts Accountability Status: House Second Reading Appropriations: The bill requires an annual expenditure of $7,005 from the Department of State Cash Fund for costs associated with scanning metropolitan district election results and publishing them on the Internet.

Bill Number: SB 09-083 Sponsors: Sen. Schultheis Rep. (None) The introduced bill would have expanded restrictions on the use of public resources to participate in political campaigns. The bill prohibited the direct or indirect use of public resources to discuss or comment on campaigns for public office or ballot issues. The bill allowed elected officials or public entities to respond to written questions regarding such campaigns or issues, but only to the persons posing the questions. The bill also prohibited using public resources to analyze or research campaigns for office, ballot issues, or campaign questions during certain periods during an election cycle, or to distribute or disseminate such expressions. Elected officials were to retain the right to express personal opinions under the bill, so long as the expression does not involve the use of public employees. Those found in violation of the bill's prohibitions would have been required to fully reimburse the governmental fund from which moneys were diverted to participate in the prohibited activities. In addition, the bill imposed a civil fine equal to the amount of reimbursement, to be paid into the state General Fund. The bill also contained several provisions seeking to maintain a low threshold for the public to file complaints based on the bill's prohibitions.	Short Title: Limits Public Resources Policy Process Status: Postponed Indefinitely in Senate State, Veterans, and Military Affairs Appropriations: The bill would have resulted in estimated additional expenditures of $8,122 for FY 2009-10 by the Department of Personnel and Administration to cover increased caseloads for administrative law judges based on complaints brought under the bill. The costs would have been covered by the Department of State Cash Fund. The bill may have also resulted in increased General Fund revenues from civil fines, which were expected to be minimal.

Short Title: Clarify Initiative and Referendum Process

Sponsors: Rep. Court
Sen. White

Status: Postponed Indefinitely in House State, Veterans, and Military Affairs

The introduced bill would have required certain information to appear on statewide ballots, on petition forms for statewide ballot issues, and in the ballot information booklet ("blue book"). Specifically, the bill required:

- ballots to identify a ballot issue proposing a change to the state constitution as an "amendment," and a ballot issue proposing a change to statutes as a "proposition." The bill also required the current explanation appearing at the top of each ballot to explain the difference between an amendment and a proposition;
- a ballot title appearing on the ballot to be preceded by a statement indicating whether the ballot issue changes the state constitution or statutes, and including the short title used to summarize the ballot issue in the blue book;
- the statement at the top of each page of an initiative petition to contain a statement that signing the petition indicates support for including the proposed change to either the state constitution or statutes on the ballot, and that a sufficient number of signatures will result in the issue appearing on the ballot;
- the Director of Research of Legislative Council to finalize and provide to the Secretary of State each ballot issue short title 60 days prior to the election, while prohibiting modification of a short title once it is forwarded; and
- requests for withdrawal of an initiative petition to be filed with the Secretary of State no later than 60 days prior to the election. This prevents withdrawn ballot issues from appearing on the ballot.

Appropriations:

Changing the date for withdrawing citizen-initiated ballot measures may have resulted in cost savings for the state due to the elimination of the need for publishing such measures in newspapers, and cost savings to local governments associated with avoidance of printing and mailing ballots that include withdrawn measures. However, local governments may have incurred increased costs for printing and mailing based on the bill's required inclusion of additional information on ballots.

Elements of House Bill 09-1140 were incorporated in House Bill 09-1326.
