

Sales and Use Tax - Contractors

Do contractors pay state sales tax?

Generally, contractors who build and construct real property improvements and who bid work under lump sum contracts are considered to be the users and consumers of materials used during the contract work and must pay sales tax to their vendors on all purchases. For more information regarding applicable sales tax see FYI Sales 6.