Thousands apply for rebate for low-income seniors and disabled

Denver, CO, February 28, 2012 – More than 11,000 people have applied for the Colorado Property Tax/Rent/Heat Rebate, commonly known as the “PTC Rebate” thus far in 2012. This is a rebate for low-income seniors and disabled individuals of their rent or property taxes paid and heating expenses paid. Qualified applicants can receive up to $792 -- $600 for rent or property tax paid and a maximum rebate of $192 for heating expenses.

Last year, the average rebate was $305. As many as 35,000 Coloradans may be eligible for this PTC rebate. It has been available to Colorado residents since 1979. The actual rebate total is based on the applicant's income and expenses. Any Colorado resident who meets the requirements for the rebate should submit the 2011 rebate application, Form 104PTC, which is available from the Department of Revenue's Taxation Web site at www.TaxColorado.com Click the “PTC” button at the top of the page.

What are the eligibility requirements?

- You have resided in Colorado for the entire year.
- A single person with total income of less than $12,313.
- A married couple with total combined income of less than $16,205
- You (either husband or wife) are 65 or older by Dec. 31, or are a surviving spouse at least 58 years old by Dec. 31, or
- You were disabled for the entire year, regardless of age.
- You are not claimed as a dependent on any other person's federal income tax return.
- You are lawfully present in the United States.
- You apply for the rebate with the 104PTC form and the DR 4679 PTC affidavit, available at www.TaxColorado.com Click on the PTC button at the top of the page for the 104PTC booklet with instructions.

How can I check the status of my rebate check?

The status of your PTC rebate will not be available until April 15, 2012 (at the earliest) or 12 weeks after the application is filed. Depending on when your application is approved, installment payments are issued in April, July, October and January.

If you have Internet access, go to www.Colorado.gov/RevenueOnline and click on Individual to check the status of your most current installment payment. This system will not show your full rebate amount.
