License Plate Auction Group as authorized by the

Laura Hershey Disability-Benefit Support Act

The Disability Benefit Support Fund will fund services in Colorado to provide education, direct assistance and advocacy to enroll those who are eligible for Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI), Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and Long Term Care Medicaid but who cannot get through the application process.

The License Plate Auction Group will be created within the Office of the Governor and shall generate revenue for the Disability Benefit Support Fund as authorized by Colorado House Bill 11-1216.

The License Plate Auction Group shall:

Raise money by auctioning to a buyer the right to use valuable letter and number combinations for a registration number.

Study the market and determine which registration numbers are the most valuable, including both the types of plates currently issued and any type of plate that has been historically issued.

The group shall raise money by creating a market, which may include on-line auction site, for registration number using methods that are commercially reasonable, account for expenditures and ensure the collection of the state's approval and transfer royalty.

The group consists of seven members appointed as follows:

- (a) One member appointed by the Executive Director of the Department of Revenue who is not a member of the Colorado Advisory Council for Persons with Disabilities.
- (b) One member who is appointed by the Governor to represent persons with disabilities and who is not a member of the Colorado Advisory Council for Persons with Disabilities.
- (c) One member appointed by the president of the senate to represent persons with disabilities:

- (d) One member appointed by the Colorado Advisory Council for Persons with Disabilities.
- (e) One member appointed by the Director of the Colorado Office of Economic Development;
- (f) One member appointed by the Chief of the Colorado state patrol; and,
- (g) One member appointed by the Chief Information Officer.

NOTE: Members of the group serve at the pleasure of the appointing entity.
