Every charitable organization or governmental agency that accepts a conservation easement in gross in Colorado during the year must file this form no later than April 15 of the following year. However, the report must be filed prior to accepting any new conservation easement donation during the calendar year. Report all conservation easements held in Colorado on this form, not just those donations received during the prior year. Copies of the completed form are available to the public from the Department of Revenue or Division of Real Estate.

Mail signed copies of the completed form to both of the following State Departments:
