The State may convert your check to a one time electronic banking transaction. Your bank account may be debited as early as the same day received by the State. If converted, your check will not be returned. If your check is rejected due to insufficient or uncollected funds, the Department of Revenue may collect the payment amount directly from your bank account electronically.

The applicant agrees that upon acceptance of the license granted by the Department for cigarette tax, that they are subject to all provisions of the following statutes and regulations: §C.R.S., Title 39, Article 28, Part 1-Cigarette Tax, Title 39, Article 28, Part 2-Tobacco Escrow Funds, Title 39, Article 28, Part 3-Additional requirements for tobacco product manufacturers and stamping agents. The Certified Brands Directory, FYIs, regulations and statutes are available at www.TaxColorado.com. Non-compliance with these statutes and regulations can result in revocation of the license(s) for two years.

I declare under penalty of perjury in the second degree that the statements made in this application are true and complete to the best of my knowledge (Signature required below).
