

Linda George

Windsor, Colorado

Linda George's artwork has been greatly influenced by her Nordic heritage. Being first-generation Swedish/Norwegian, she grew up and was surrounded by the cultural traditions her parents were so proud of. She was taught to knit at the age of 10 by her Aunt Elsa from Sweden. Living on a tree farm in Windsor, CO with her husband of 38 years, the couple has raised two sons and a daughter and they continue to instill Nordic traditions in their grandchildren.
