

Denver Major Crimes Unit

Polygraph

The Polygraph examination is a valuable investigative aid when used in conjunction with, but not as a substitute for a thorough investigation. Polygraph is employed to verify, corroborate or refute statements. It is also useful in obtaining additional investigative leads as well as narrowing or focusing criminal investigations. The CBI employs this investigative technique through the efforts of highly trained agents.