

STATE CONTROLLER POLICY

REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF STATE CONTRACTS

BY

THE OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Unless otherwise provided by law (e.g., CRS §2-2-320 Legislative Department Contracts), the Office of the State Controller (OSC) has sole discretion regarding whether to request review and approval of State Contracts on behalf of the OSC by the Office of the Attorney General (OAG).

Sending contracts to the OAG for review on behalf of the OSC without OSC direction may unnecessarily increase approval time and costs.

Agencies or Institutions of Higher Education obtaining such OAG review and/or approval without OSC direction shall be billed directly by the OAG and such fees shall not be charged to the budget of the OSC or the Department of Personnel & Administration.
