

C4J – CLINICAL BEHAVIORAL SPECIALIST
OCTOBER 22, 2001

Title/Class Code	Education/Experience/Licensure/Certification	Substitutions
CLINICAL BEHAVIORAL SPECIALIST I C4J1TX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a master's degree in guidance counseling, psychology, or psychometrics and one year of experience investigating, identifying and measuring mental health and development and the behavioral characteristics of patients/clients to recommend rehabilitative and/or habilitative programs.	A bachelor's degree with an additional twelve months of experience investigating, identifying and measuring mental health and development and the behavioral characteristics of patients/clients to recommend rehabilitative and/or habilitative programs may be substituted for the master's degree. Work experience which provides the same kind, amount and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may be substituted for the education on a year-for-year basis. A doctorate degree in any of the degree areas listed may be substituted for one year of the experience.
CLINICAL BEHAVIORAL SPECIALIST II C4J2XX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a master's degree in guidance counseling, psychology, or psychometrics and three years of experience investigating, identifying and measuring mental health and development and the behavioral characteristics of patients/clients to recommend rehabilitative and/or habilitative programs.	A bachelor's degree with an additional twelve months of experience investigating, identifying and measuring mental health and development and the behavioral characteristics of patients/clients to recommend rehabilitative and/or habilitative programs may be substituted for the master's degree. Work experience which provides the same kind, amount and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may be substituted for the education on a year-for-year basis. A doctorate degree in any of the degree areas listed may be substituted for one year of the experience.

Title/Class Code	Education/Experience/Licensure/Certification	Substitutions
CLINICAL BEHAVIORAL SPECIALIST III  C4J3XX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a master's degree in guidance counseling, psychology, or psychometrics and four years of experience investigating, identifying and measuring mental health and development and the behavioral characteristics of patients/clients to recommend rehabilitative and/or habilitative programs.	A bachelor's degree with an additional twelve months of experience investigating, identifying and measuring mental health and development and the behavioral characteristics of patients/clients to recommend rehabilitative and/or habilitative programs may be substituted for the master's degree. Work experience which provides the same kind, amount and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may be substituted for the education on a year-for-year basis. A doctorate degree in any of the degree areas listed may be substituted for one year of the experience.

