

B3E – PROPERTY TAX SPECIALIST

Title/Class Code	Education and Experience	Substitutions
PROPERTY TAX SPECIALIST INTERN B3E1IX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree in real estate appraisal, real estate, economics, tax auditing, accounting, business, business administration, public administration, finance, finance economics, political science, political science and government, or mathematics.	A master's or doctorate degree from an accredited college or university in real estate appraisal, real estate, economics, tax auditing, accounting, business, business administration, public administration, finance, finance economics, political science, political science and government, or mathematics may substitute for the bachelor's degree. Any combination of work experience in property taxation, land negotiation and appraisal, and/or real estate appraisal, which provided the same kind, amount, and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may be substituted on a year-for-year basis for the bachelor's degree.
PROPERTY TAX SPECIALIST I B3E2TX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree in real estate appraisal, real estate, economics, tax auditing, accounting, business, business administration, public administration, finance, finance economics, political science, political science and government, or mathematics; AND one year of property taxation experience, land negotiation and appraisal experience, and/or real estate appraisal experience.	A master's or doctorate degree from an accredited college or university in real estate appraisal, real estate, economics, tax auditing, accounting, business, business administration, public administration, finance, finance economics, political science, political science and government, or mathematics may substitute for the bachelor's degree and one year of the required general experience. Any combination of work experience in property taxation, land negotiation and appraisal, and/or real estate appraisal, which provided the same kind, amount, and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may be substituted on a year-for-year basis for the bachelor's degree.
PROPERTY TAX SPECIALIST II B3E3XX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree in real estate appraisal, real estate, economics, tax auditing, accounting, business, business administration, public administration, finance, finance economics, political science, political science and government, or mathematics; AND two years of property taxation experience, land negotiation and appraisal experience, and/or real estate appraisal experience.	A master's or doctorate degree from an accredited college or university in real estate appraisal, real estate, economics, tax auditing, accounting, business, business administration, public administration, finance, finance economics, political science, political science and government, or mathematics may substitute for the bachelor's degree and one year of the required general experience. Any combination of work experience in property taxation, land negotiation and appraisal, and/or real estate appraisal, which provided the same kind, amount, and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may be substituted on a year-for-year basis for the bachelor's degree.

PROPERTY TAX SPECIALIST III B3E4XX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree in real estate appraisal, real estate, economics, tax auditing, accounting, business, business administration, public administration, finance, finance economics, political science, political science and government, or mathematics; AND three years of progressively responsible property taxation experience, land negotiation and appraisal experience, and/or real estate appraisal experience.	A master's or doctorate degree from an accredited college or university in real estate appraisal, real estate, economics, tax auditing, accounting, business, business administration, public administration, finance, finance economics, political science, political science and government, or mathematics may substitute for the bachelor's degree and one year of the required general experience. Any combination of work experience in property taxation, land negotiation and appraisal, and/or real estate appraisal, which provided the same kind, amount, and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may be substituted on a year-for-year basis for the bachelor's degree.
PROPERTY TAX SPECIALIST IV B3E5XX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree in real estate appraisal, real estate, economics, tax auditing, accounting, business, business administration, public administration, finance, finance economics, political science, political science and government, or mathematics; AND four years of progressively responsible property taxation experience, land negotiation and appraisal experience, and/or real estate appraisal experience. Experience must include a minimum of one-year supervising and managing a property taxation/valuation unit.	A master's or doctorate degree from an accredited college or university in real estate appraisal, real estate, economics, tax auditing, accounting, business, business administration, public administration, finance, finance economics, political science, political science and government, or mathematics may substitute for the bachelor's degree and one year of the required general experience. Any combination of work experience in property taxation, land negotiation and appraisal, and/or real estate appraisal, which provided the same kind, amount, and level of knowledge acquired in the required education may be substituted on a year-for-year basis for the bachelor's degree.