The Governor's Commission on Community Service (GCCS) proudly presents the 2011 Cesar Chavez Day of Service and Learning.

Cesar Chavez founded and led the first successful farm workers' union in U.S. history. He was a crusader for nonviolent social change, and noted by Senator Robert F. Kennedy as "one of the heroic figures of our time." To commemorate the life and legacy of Cesar Chavez, GCCS encourages you to bring the day of service and learning to your community! Connect your service to life and teachings of Cesar Chavez.
