EXECUTIVE ORDER

Full and Unconditional Pardon
Matt S. Bowen

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Governor of the State of Colorado by Article IV, Section 7 of the Colorado Constitution, I, John W. Hickenlooper, Governor of the State of Colorado, hereby issue this Executive Order granting a pardon to Matt S. Bowen.

I. Background

In 2001, Matt S. Bowen pleaded guilty to Conspiracy to Possess a Schedule II Controlled Substance (F-3) in Jefferson County, Colorado (01CR927). Matt S. Bowen completed the terms of his sentence. The constitutional and statutory conditions for granting this clemency petition have been satisfied, and granting this pardon is in the interest of justice.

II. Grant of Clemency

A. Matt S. Bowen be and hereby is granted a full and unconditional pardon of the above described conviction.

B. All of his rights of citizenship, including but not limited to, voting, jury duty, holding public office, and firearms privileges, are restored in full without condition. All of his civil disabilities and public sufferings associated with this conviction are removed.

GIVEN under my hand and the Executive Seal of the State of Colorado this ninth day of November, 2018.

Matt S. Bowen

Mr. Bowen,

I am writing to inform you that I am granting your application for a pardon.

Of the hundreds of applications for pardons my office has received over the years, yours is one of the few I am granting. I am doing so because you have demonstrated your commitment to moving past your criminal history and starting anew, while taking with you the lessons you have learned throughout your life.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. In 2001, you pleaded guilty to Conspiracy to Possess a Schedule II Controlled Substance in Jefferson County, Colorado. You have since turned around your life. You took on the responsibilities of fatherhood, and hope to build on these bonds with your child. You met the challenges of unexpected blindness, and took painful, but responsible, steps to adjust to your newfound condition.

I hope this pardon will create opportunities for you, such as securing housing and employment and pursuing a career in medical billing and coding. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication. I believe you have it in you to move beyond past mistakes.

By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. Show them how it’s done.

Good luck to you.

Sincerely,

John W. Hickenlooper

EXECUTIVE ORDER

Full and Unconditional Pardon
Scott T. Brann

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Governor of the State of Colorado by Article IV, Section 7 of the Colorado Constitution, I, John W. Hickenlooper, Governor of the State of Colorado, hereby issue this Executive Order granting a pardon to Scott T. Brann.

I. Background

In 2004, Scott T. Brann pleaded guilty to Vehicular Assault - Criminal Attempt (F-6) in Jefferson County, Colorado (04CR436). Scott T. Brann completed the terms of his sentence. The constitutional and statutory conditions for granting this clemency petition have been satisfied, and granting this pardon is in the interest of justice.

II. Grant of Clemency

A. Scott T. Brann be and hereby is granted a full and unconditional pardon of the above described conviction.

B. All of his rights of citizenship, including but not limited to, voting, jury duty, holding public office, and firearms privileges, are restored in full without condition. All of his civil disabilities and public sufferings associated with this conviction are removed.

Mr. Brann,

I am writing to inform you that I am granting your application for a pardon.

Of the hundreds of applications for pardons my office has received over the years, yours is one of the few I am granting. I am doing so because you have demonstrated your commitment to moving past your criminal history and starting anew, while taking with you the lessons you have learned throughout your life.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. More than ten years ago, you pleaded guilty to Vehicular Assault - Criminal Attempt. You describe how you have been unable to volunteer and feel the negative stigma of being labeled a felon. You have since turned around your life. You have had life altering medical procedures as a result of an accident and forgiven that individual, something many would be unable to do.

I hope that this pardon will create more volunteer and employment opportunities for you. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication. I believe you have it in you to move beyond past mistakes.

By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. Show them how it's done.

Good luck to you.

Mr. Connelly,

I am writing to inform you that I am granting your application for a pardon.

Of the hundreds of applications for pardons my office has received over the years, yours is one of the few I am granting. I am doing so because you have demonstrated your commitment to moving past your criminal history and starting anew, while taking with you the lessons you have learned throughout your life.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. Since your conviction more than twenty years ago, you have worked hard to make a life for you and your family. Despite your best efforts to move on from this, it has prevented you from hunting with your family, pursuing certain academic goals, and volunteering at your children’s school. You have shown remorse by sending a handwritten letter to the victim of your crime.

I hope that this pardon will create opportunity for you, like certain jobs, academic programs, and volunteer opportunities. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication. I believe you have it in you to move beyond past mistakes.

Since completing your sentence, you have demonstrated your capacity to live a productive life. By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. Show them how it’s done.

Good luck to you.

Sincerely,

Full and Unconditional Pardon
Donald S. Ertle

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Governor of the State of Colorado by Article IV, Section 7 of the Colorado Constitution, I, John W. Hickenlooper, Governor of the State of Colorado, hereby issue this Executive Order granting a pardon to Donald S. Ertle.

I. Background

In 1992, Donald S. Ertle pleaded guilty to two counts of Distribution of a Controlled Substance - Schedule II (F-3) in Adams County, Colorado (91CR79). Donald S. Ertle completed the terms of his sentence. The constitutional and statutory conditions for granting this clemency petition have been satisfied, and granting this pardon is in the interest of justice.

II. Grant of Clemency

A. Donald S. Ertle be and hereby is granted a full and unconditional pardon of the above described conviction.

B. All of his rights of citizenship, including but not limited to, voting, jury duty, holding public office, and firearms privileges, are restored in full without condition. All of his civil disabilities and public sufferings associated with this conviction are removed.

Mr. Ertle,

I am writing to inform you that I am granting your application for a pardon.

Of the hundreds of applications for pardons my office has received over the years, yours is one of the few I am granting. I am doing so because you have demonstrated your commitment to moving past your criminal history and starting anew, while taking with you the lessons you have learned throughout your life.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. More than twenty five years ago, you pleaded guilty to two counts of Distribution of a Controlled Substance - Schedule II. You take full ownership for your actions. You have since turned around your life. You have had a successful career at Union Pacific Railroad, been a law abiding citizen, and been involved in your community.

I hope that this pardon will create opportunity for you, like going hunting with your grandson and being able to vote in your home state of Iowa. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication. I believe you have it in you to move beyond past mistakes.

By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. Show them how it’s done.

Mr. Gehrke,

I am writing to inform you that I am granting your application for a pardon.

Of the hundreds of applications for pardons my office has received over the years, yours is one of the few I am granting. I am doing so because you have demonstrated your commitment to moving past your criminal history and starting anew, while taking with you the lessons you have learned throughout your life.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. Almost twenty years ago, you pleaded guilty to Criminal Conspiracy to Commit Theft from a Person. You have since turned around your life. You have worked through roadblocks that the felony has presented for you and your family. You are not only remorseful, but accept full responsibility for your past actions. Your friends, family, and colleagues describe your strong work ethic and dedication to creating a better life for your family and improving your community.

I hope that this pardon will create opportunity for you and your family, like being able to go hunting, volunteering at your children’s school, or improving your wife’s ability to work in childcare. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication. I believe you have it in you to move beyond past mistakes.

By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. Show them how it’s done.

Mr. McManis,

I am writing to inform you that I am granting your application for a pardon.

Of the hundreds of applications for pardons my office has received over the years, yours is one of the few I am granting. I am doing so because you have demonstrated your commitment to moving past your criminal history and starting anew, while taking with you the lessons you have learned throughout your life.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. In 2003, you pleaded guilty to Controlled Substance - Possession Schedule II and Possession of Marihuana 1-8 ounces. You have lived an upstanding life since then, with demonstrated commitment to both your family and your professional goals. I understand you have started your own contracting business and that your felony charge has created employment difficulties. You say that you would like this pardon to demonstrate commitment to your family, and I find this reasoning to be noble. You have turned around your life.

I hope that this pardon will create opportunity for you. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication. I believe you have it in you to move beyond past mistakes.

By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. Show them how it’s done.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

Full and Unconditional Pardon
Mark F. Medvedeff

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Governor of the State of Colorado by Article IV, Section 7 of the Colorado Constitution, I, John W. Hickenlooper, Governor of the State of Colorado, hereby issue this Executive Order granting a pardon to Mark F. Medvedeff.

I. Background

In 1976, Mark F. Medvedeff pleaded guilty to Accessory After the Fact to Simple Robbery (F-5) in El Paso County, Colorado (76CR16443). Mark F. Medvedeff completed the terms of his sentence. The constitutional and statutory conditions for granting this clemency petition have been satisfied, and granting this pardon is in the interest of justice.

II. Grant of Clemency

A. Mark F. Medvedeff be and hereby is granted a full and unconditional pardon of the above described conviction.

B. All of his rights of citizenship, including but not limited to, voting, jury duty, holding public office, and firearms privileges, are restored in full without condition. All of his civil disabilities and public sufferings associated with this conviction are removed.

GIVEN under my hand and the Executive Seal of the State of Colorado this ninth day of November, 2018.

John W. Hickenlooper
Governor
November 9, 2018

Mark F. Medvedeff

Mr. Medvedeff,

I am writing to inform you that I am granting your application for a pardon.

Of the hundreds of applications for pardons my office has received over the years, yours is one of the few I am granting. I am doing so because you have demonstrated your commitment to moving past your criminal history and starting anew, while taking with you the lessons you have learned throughout your life.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. More than forty years ago, you pleaded guilty to Accessory After the Fact to Simple Robbery. You were unaware of the intent of individuals you drove and accept full responsibility. You have since turned around your life. You raised a family, became a pilot, went back to school, established a strong career in technology, and received Secret and Top Secret clearances as a Systems Administrator.

I hope that this pardon will create opportunity for you. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication. I believe you have it in you to move beyond past mistakes.

By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. Show them how it’s done.

Good luck to you.

Sincerely,

John W. Hickenlooper

EXECUTIVE ORDER

Full and Unconditional Pardon
Sunder W. Morgan

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Governor of the State of Colorado by Article IV, Section 7 of the Colorado Constitution, I, John W. Hickenlooper, Governor of the State of Colorado, hereby issue this Executive Order granting a pardon to Sunder W. Morgan (formerly Sunder W. Schlagel).

I. Background

In 1995, Sunder W. Morgan pleaded guilty to False Reporting (M-3) (95CR166) and Theft (M-2) (95CR167) in Boulder County, Colorado. Sunder W. Morgan completed the terms of his sentences. The constitutional and statutory conditions for granting this clemency petition have been satisfied, and granting this pardon is in the interest of justice.

II. Grant of Clemency

A. Sunder W. Morgan be and hereby is granted a full and unconditional pardon of the above described convictions.

B. All of his rights of citizenship, including but not limited to, voting, jury duty, holding public office, and firearms privileges, are restored in full without condition. All of his civil disabilities and public sufferings associated with this conviction are removed.

Sunder W. Morgan

Mr. Morgan,

I am writing to inform you that I am granting your application for a pardon.

Of the hundreds of applications for pardons my office has received over the years, yours is one of the few I am granting. I am doing so because you have demonstrated your commitment to moving past your criminal history and starting anew, while taking with you the lessons you have learned throughout your life.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. In 1995, you pleaded guilty to False Reporting and Theft in Boulder County, Colorado. You have since turned around your life. You overcame a childhood full of excruciating and unimaginable hardships to emerge as a seasoned, thoughtful adult. You excel as a husband, father, and business owner. You dedicated yourself to living as a good citizen, and worked toward your goal of helping adults in need of residential care.

I hope this pardon will create opportunities for you, such as maintaining licensure without the need to regularly pursue discretionary exceptions. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication. I believe you have it in you to move beyond past mistakes.

By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. Show them how it’s done.

Good luck to you.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

Full and Unconditional Pardon
Wilson H. Rains

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Governor of the State of Colorado by Article IV, Section 7 of the Colorado Constitution, I, John W. Hickenlooper, Governor of the State of Colorado, hereby issue this Executive Order granting a pardon to Wilson H. Rains.

I. Background

In 2002, Wilson H. Rains pleaded guilty to Defrauding a Secured Debtor (F-5) in Larimer County, Colorado (00CR791). Wilson H. Rains completed the terms of his sentence. The constitutional and statutory conditions for granting this clemency petition have been satisfied, and granting this pardon is in the interest of justice.

II. Grant of Clemency

A. Wilson H. Rains be and hereby is granted a full and unconditional pardon of the above described conviction.

B. All of his rights of citizenship, including but not limited to, voting, jury duty, holding public office, and firearms privileges, are restored in full without condition. All of his civil disabilities and public sufferings associated with this conviction are removed.

Mr. Rains,

I am writing to inform you that I am granting your application for a pardon.

Of the hundreds of applications for pardons my office has received over the years, yours is one of the few I am granting. I am doing so because you have demonstrated your commitment to moving past your criminal history and starting anew, while taking with you the lessons you have learned throughout your life.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. More than fifteen years ago, you pleaded guilty to Defrauding a Secured Debtor. You take full responsibility for your actions. You have since turned around your life. You continue to run a successful business, and instead of leaving your community after your conviction, you became more involved. You donate your time and money to different cultural and other charitable causes in Estes Park.

I believe you deserve a second chance, and I hope that this pardon will create opportunity for you, like being able to share the bond of hunting with your children and grandchildren. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication. I believe you have it in you to move beyond past mistakes.

Since completing your sentence, you have demonstrated your capacity to live a productive life. By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. Show them how it’s done.

I am writing to inform you that I am granting your application for a pardon.

Of the hundreds of applications for pardons my office has received over the years, yours is one of the few I am granting. I am doing so because you have demonstrated your commitment to moving past your criminal history and starting anew, while taking with you the lessons you have learned throughout your life.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. More than thirty years ago, you pleaded guilty to Possession of Schedule II Controlled Substance. You have since turned around your life. You have raised a family and have helped many returning veterans and their families. Civic and community leaders describe you as having strong character, being a gentleman, and someone who gives back. You have also done construction work for jails, which required a security clearance.

I hope that this pardon will create opportunity for you, like being able to go hunting with your son and improving your ability to earn higher wages. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication. I believe you have it in you to move beyond past mistakes.

By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. Show them how it's done.

Many people with criminal histories desire a second chance, and you have earned one. In 1998, you pleaded guilty to First Degree Forgery in Morgan County, Colorado. You have since turned around your life. You pursued an education with vigor and dedication, and dove into a nursing career head-on. You rededicated yourself to living as a good citizen, and worked toward your goal of becoming a flight nurse. You considered prior hardship as an opportunity for growth, not an insurmountable hurdle. Elected officials, law enforcement, friends, and acquaintances describe your strong work ethic, commitment to serving others, and ability to bring out the best in those around you.

I hope this pardon will create opportunities for you, such as building your nursing career without worry for employment barriers. It is up to you to make the most of this opportunity. It will require hard work and dedication. I believe you have it in you to move beyond past mistakes.

By continuing down this path, you will improve not only your life, but also the lives of your family and community members. Others who have experienced circumstances similar to yours will look to you for guidance and inspiration. Show them how it’s done.
