

Meeting Notes

Disaster Unified Review Team (DURT), Sept 3, 2014

Eugene Foord Conference Room | Building 20, Denver Federal Center

Updates

- Colorado Recovery Office
 - Requesting state representation in DURT to identify best avenues for the DURT to support the CRO.
- Watershed Resources
 - Association of State Flood Plain Managers (ASFPM) training resources
 - <http://www.floods.org/> Look under 'Training and Education'
- Recovery Implementation Matrix (RIM)
 - Send out as an attachment before meeting, passed around in the meeting
 - Please submit any feedback to Jeffrey.Fullmer@FEMA.DHS.gov
 - Commentary on DURT directions , issues, objectives welcome
- Upcoming events
 - Outreach is underway to the South Platte River Forum for DURT rep. Oct 23-34
 - 200 plus water users in attendance, www.southplatteforum.org
- Website
 - State owned web space has been requested from Molly Urbina for DURT website

Engagement

- State
 - Who from the state is it relevant to bring to the DURT table at the next meeting?
 - Colorado Recovery Office
 - CDPHE
 - OEM
 - Who from the state deals with S.B. 40, CO State Register Act etc...
 - State Department of Agriculture
 - SHPO
 - CDOT
 - Who else?
 - How can awareness and compliance of state Environmental and Historic Preservation directives be supported / promoted by the DURT?
- USACE – Missing from DURT partners and in GIS data sharing
- NRCS – Negotiating Data Sharing via UFR MOU.
- Increase awareness of DURT Products as tools for watershed coalitions.

Group working together to develop and agree upon NEPA documents

- Utilities PEA will be sent around next week for DURT partner development
- Adoption of other Agencies NEPA documents, Programmatic Agreements, MOUs
 - How is it done now?
 - How should it be done?

Adoption of Technology

- DURT Viewer continued development, engage partners.
 - National MOU being leveraged to collect further project data
- DURT partners assembling the beginnings of state clearing house including:
 - All CO NEPA documentation
 - EHP resource GIS data from all resource agencies
 - State EHP directive data.
 - If you have access to any of this data, please submit to Jeffrey.Fullmer@FEMA.DHS.gov