Community Strengths

Broadband: Yampa Valley Electric Coop has recently taken on a broadband project within Moffat County. This project offers great benefit not only to the current businesses but to those looking to relocate to the culture that Moffat County has to offer.

Higher Education: Colorado Northwestern Community College offers various associate degrees, job training and hands on learning through automotive, cosmetology and nursing degrees.

Memorial Regional Health: Hospital currently 25 bed hospital, Rapid Care walk-in clinic, multi-specialty medical clinics and rehabilitation center.
In addition to an agriculture background, Moffat County historically has had coal mining supporting their local power plant as part of the local economy. Through regulatory changes impacting the existing coal industry, we would like to retain the jobs affected by these changes, moving to other industries and job creation compatible with the agriculture and recreation opportunities of the county.
Business investments and opportunities for those interested to invest in Moffat County’s rural and vast area.

Deadlines may apply depending on investment or opportunity. Contact information is listed at the bottom of each page and the end of this document for more detail.

Colorado Jump Start

- State provided tax relief of income tax credits and sales tax exemptions.

- Moffat County provided tax relief through adopted resolutions in 2017. Moffat County is a designated Jump Start Zone for up to 8 years of benefits rebate of business personal property tax, county sales and use taxes for tangible personal property used within the zone.

- Any business that wishes to participate in the Rural Jump-Start program must be a business that is not currently operating in the state of Colorado, and does not directly compete with the core function of an existing Colorado business. Existing Colorado businesses are not eligible for the Rural Jump-Start program.

- Every company in the Rural Jump-Start program must hire at least five new hires working 35 hours a week.

- A New Business that is approved by the Colorado Economic Development Commission (EDC) is granted tax relief for four years from the date of EDC approval. The New Business may apply for an extension of benefits of up to four years, for a total of eight years of benefits.

- Zone is designated by the institute of higher education, CNCC.
