3-4-1 TAX LEVIED.

(A) There is hereby levied an excise tax upon the privilege and business of creating subdivisions for residential development. The tax shall be due and payable at the time the subdivision is created from the person or entity creating the subdivision. In addition to any other means of creating a subdivision, recording a subdivision plat shall be deemed to create the subdivision at the time of recording.

(B) The amount of the tax shall equal $1500 times the maximum number of dwelling units allowable on each lot or parcel created by the subdivision, as dictated by Town zoning regulations in place at the time or plat restrictions on the number of residential dwelling units, less the number of existing dwelling units, in existing buildings, as of July 1, 1999. Provided, however, units which may be allowed as an accessory dwelling unit pursuant to Subsection 7-3-13 (G), or a specific plat note, shall not be counted in computing the tax due. In the event any change in the zoning, plat restriction, or other action increases the number of units allowable above the number for which the tax was paid, such additional tax attributable to the additional units shall become immediately due and payable to the Town. (Ord 8-2005)

(C) For the purposes of this Section 3-4 "subdivision", "subdivider" shall have the meanings as set out pursuant to Town Subdivision Regulations.

(D) All subdivision plats shall contain Town approved plat notes indicating the number of units for which the excise tax has been paid, giving notice that if any additional units are added that excise tax shall be due with the building permit or upon any further subdivision, and addressing other matters as appropriate to implement the provisions of this Section 3-4. (Ord 3-2010)

(E) The payment of excise taxes may be deferred until the time of building permit issuance or further subdivision under the following circumstances if an explanatory plat note approved by the Town is included on the plat:

- (1) A lot is already developed and further development is not proposed in the near future;

(2) A lot is being created to accommodate phased development involving condominium units or further subdivision in accordance with an approved preliminary plat and phasing plan; or

(3) Additional condominium buildings are proposed for later construction on the lot or parcel, in accordance with an approved preliminary plat and phasing plan.

(C) Subdivisions which do not allow any residences do not require payment of this tax.

(D) Subdivisions implementing a site specific development plan during the period of a vested right approved by the Town prior to January 1, 1999 do not require payment of this tax if they do not increase the number of units approved.

3-4-3 PURPOSE.
