

Elections

Senate Bills
SB 06S-007 Voting by Persons Not Eligible to Vote

During the 2006 Special Session, the General Assembly adopted one bill concerning the conduct of elections.

SB 06S-007 makes knowingly voting in an election by a person not entitled to vote in the election a class 5 felony. The bill specifies that this law must be enforced without regard to race, religion, gender, ethnicity, or national origin.