The free, simple and secure electronic filing choice!

First, complete the federal income tax return you will file with the IRS because you will use numbers from that return on your Colorado income tax return.

Go to www.Colorado.gov/RevenueOnline

Click on the File a Return button under the heading for Individuals.

Click on the link File 2014 Individual Income Tax.

Tips on using Revenue Online

At the end of each step, click the OK button. The Cancel button will remove any entries from the step you are in and return you to the main screen. For example, if you are in Step 3 and click Cancel, anything you entered in Step 3 will be removed, but entries from Steps 1 and 2 will still be available.

Hot Tips! provide help along the way.

Step 1: Enter Taxpayer Information

Enter the requested taxpayer information. Mark the Filing Joint box and enter spouse data ONLY if filing a married filing joint return.

Step 2: W-2s and/or 1099s

If you have W-2 and/or 1099 income with Colorado withholding, click the link and complete the data fields as required. If you do not have W-2 or 1099 income with Colorado withholding, mark the appropriate check box.

Step 3: Income Information

This step looks similar to Form 104. Enter your figures from the appropriate lines of your Colorado income tax return.

Some lines will have an EDIT button along the right side of your screen. Click EDIT to complete these lines.

Some lines will automatically calculate for you.

If a special schedule or additional information is required, an ERROR button will appear along the right side of your screen. Click ERROR to complete the required information.

Step 4: Tax Prepayments and Credits

This step looks similar to Form 104, and behaves similarly to Step 3.

If line 36 is $0, and you have net tax owed, enter self-calculated penalty and interest, if any. If you are unsure how to calculate the penalty and interest, DO NOT calculate it yourself. The department will assess if it is due.

Step 5: Contributions and Credits to be Carried Forward

Designate how much money, if any, you would like to pay for first quarter estimated tax or to contribute to charity.

Step 6: Refund or Balance Due

If Revenue Online has calculated a refund, you have the option of receiving your refund faster by completing the Direct Deposit information. Otherwise, a refund check will be mailed to you.

If Revenue Online has determined that a tax payment is required, you have the option of paying online or printing a payment voucher to mail with a check.

Step 7: Confirm and Submit

Confirm and submit your return. Mark the box for Third Party Designee if authorizing someone else to discuss this return with the department.

Done!

We suggest you print a copy of your Revenue Online return to keep for your records. Do not mail a copy of your Revenue Online return.

How To Use This Filing Guide

This filing guide will assist you with completing your Colorado Income Tax Return. Once you finish the form, file it with a computer, smartphone, or tablet using our free and secure Revenue Online service at www.Colorado.gov/RevenueOnline. Or, you may file using private e-file software or with a tax preparer. By filing your return electronically, you significantly reduce the chance of errors and you will receive your refund much faster. If you cannot file electronically for any reason, mail the enclosed forms as instructed.

Please read through this guide before starting your return.

The following symbols appear throughout this guide and point out important information, reminders, and changes to tax rules.

This points out a topic that is the source of common filing errors. Filing your return on Revenue Online will limit errors somewhat; however, it is important to understand the information on your return. Errors cause processing delays and erroneous bills.

Several subtractions and tax credits require you to provide supporting documentation. This symbol points out those requirements. If the additional documentation is not provided, it will cause processing delays or denial of the credits/subtractions. These documents can be scanned and attached to your Revenue Online or electronic filing, mailed with the DR 1778, or attached to your paper return.

In-depth tax information is available in our easy to understand FYI Publications, which include examples and worksheets. This symbol lets you know when such a publication is available for a subject. All FYI publications are available at www.TaxColorado.com

Filing Information

Who Must File This Tax Return

Each year you must evaluate if you should file a Colorado income tax return. Generally, you must file this return if you were:

- A full-year resident of Colorado; or
- A part-year Colorado resident who receives taxable income while residing here; or
- Not a resident of Colorado, but receives income from sources within Colorado;

and

- Are required to file a federal income tax return with the IRS for this year; or
- Will have a Colorado income tax liability for this year.

Colorado residents must file this return if they file an income tax return with the IRS, even if they do not have a Colorado tax liability. Otherwise, the Department may file a return on your behalf and our return might not consider your unique tax situation. Also, the only way to determine if you are entitled to a refund is to file a return.

Due Date

Form 104 and any tax payment owed are due April 15, 2015. Revenue Online will accept returns as timely filed until midnight. Returns that are mailed must be postmarked by April 15th. An automatic extension to file is granted until October 15th, but there is no extension to pay. See page 25 for more information.

Deceased Persons

Legal representatives and surviving spouses may file a return on behalf of a deceased person. Surviving spouses may complete the return as usual and indicate the deceased status on the return. They can file the return and submit a copy of the death certificate through Revenue Online. Legal representatives may file the return and submit a copy of the death certificate through Revenue Online, but they must complete the Third Party Designee portion of the return. Either a surviving spouse or legal representative can avoid problems when filing on paper by marking the box next to the name of the deceased person; writing “DECEASED” in large letters in the white space above the tax year of the return; writing “FILING AS SURVIVING SPOUSE” or “FILING AS LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE” after their signature; and attaching the DR 0102 and a copy of the death certificate to the return.

To claim a refund on behalf a deceased person, complete form DR 0102 and submit it, as well as a copy of the death certificate, when filing the return.

Filing Status

You must file using the same filing status on both your federal and Colorado income tax returns. Parties to a Civil Union should refer to federal tax law to determine the correct filing status. For Married Filing Joint, you must list the taxpayer names in the same order on both the federal and Colorado returns. For married filing separate, do not list your spouse’s name or SSN on the return.

Line by Line Instructions

First, complete the federal income tax return you will file with the IRS. You must complete your federal return first because you will use information from that return on your Colorado income tax return.

Colorado income tax is based on your federal taxable income, which has already considered your exemptions and deductions.

Residency Status

Mark the appropriate box to designate your residency status. If Married Filing Joint, and one person is a full-year Colorado resident and the other is either a part-year resident or a nonresident, mark the Part-Year Resident/Nonresident box.

FYI Part-Year Colorado Residents and Nonresidents

Tax is prorated so that it is calculated only on income received in Colorado or from sources within Colorado. We recommend you review publication FYI Income 6 if this applies to you. You will calculate your prorated tax by completing Form 104PN.

FYI Persons Traveling or Residing Abroad

If you are traveling or residing outside the United States on April 15th, the deadline for filing your return is June 15, 2015. If you need additional time to file your return, you will automatically have until October 15, 2015 to file. Interest is due on any payment received after April 15, 2015. To avoid any late payment penalties you must pay 90% of your tax liability by June 15, 2015. When filing your return, mark the "Abroad on Due Date" box on Revenue Online or on the paper return.

FYI Active Duty Military

Residency is determined by your Home of Record, which means you remain a resident of the state where you enlisted unless you have officially changed your Home of Record with your branch of the military. Your Home of Record can be found on your military form DD214 or Leave and Earnings Statement. We recommend you read publication FYI Income 21 if this applies to you.

Those with a Colorado Home of Record should file this return, even if stationed elsewhere. Those serving abroad or outside the USA at least 305 days of the year may file as a nonresident. You must mark the nonresident status-305 day exception box on Form 104PN.

Those with a Home of Record from any other state, but who are stationed in Colorado, are not required to pay Colorado tax on their military income. However, any nonmilitary income received while stationed in Colorado is taxable here (for example: part-time work, rent payments received, etc.)

Those who were married to a serviceperson at the time of enlistment can also maintain their spouse's Home of Record for tax purposes, if holding their own job in Colorado. You must complete the DR 1059 and submit it to your employer when you are hired. Submit a copy of the DR 1059 and your military ID card on Revenue Online, with the DR 1778, or, if filing on paper, attached to your return. You must complete a new DR 1059 each calendar year.

FYI Name and Address

Provide your name, mailing address, and Social Security number in the provided spaces. If filing Married Filing Joint, provide the spouse information where prompted. Provide the spouse information ONLY if filing a joint return, otherwise leave blank. All Departmental correspondence will be mailed to the mailing address provided. We recommend you read publication FYI General 2 for the Privacy Act Notice.

Line 1 Federal Taxable Income

Refer to your federal income tax return to complete this line:

- 1040EZ form use line 6
- 1040A form use line 27
- 1040 form use line 43

If your federal taxable income is a negative amount, or less than zero, be sure to enter the amount as such on your Colorado return (in brackets if mailing a paper return).

DO NOT enter your total income or wages on this line—doing so will make your tax too high. The Department will compare the amount you list here to the return you file with the IRS, so be very careful to complete this correctly.

Additions

Line 2 State Addback

Refer to your federal income tax return to complete this line:

- 1040EZ form: enter $0
- 1040A form: enter $0
- 1040 form:
 - If Schedule A was used:
 - Income Tax Deduction: use the worksheet below
 - General Sales Tax Deduction: enter $0
 - If you DID NOT use Schedule A, enter $0

We recommend that you read publication FYI Income 4 for special instructions before completing the worksheet.

Complete the following schedule to determine your state income tax deduction addback:
a) State income tax deduction from line 5, Schedule A, federal form 1040	$
b) Total itemized deductions from line 29, Schedule A, federal form 1040	$
c) The amount of federal standard deduction you could have claimed (See instructions line 40, federal form 1040 for 2014 federal standard deductions).	$
d) Line (b) minus line (c), but not less than $0	$

Transfer to line 2 the smaller amount from line (a) or (d) of the worksheet above.

Line 3 Other Additions

Enter the sum of the following, which can be selected from a drop-down menu on Revenue Online:

- FYI • Bond interest—the amount of any interest earned from bonds issued by any state or political subdivision, excluding any bonds issued by the State of Colorado or its political subdivisions on or after May 1, 1980. Calculate the appropriate amount by subtracting the amortization of bond premiums and expenses (required to be allocated to interest income by Internal Revenue Code) from the gross amount of state and local bond interest. We recommend that you read publication FYI Income 52 if this applies to you.
- Lump-Sum distribution—the amount of any lump-sum distribution from a pension or profit-sharing plan that was reported on IRS form 4972, excluding any estate tax paid.

Distributions included here are subject to 10-year averaging on the federal return. If your lump-sum distributions are not subject to 10-year averaging and were included in your federal taxable income (line 1), DO NOT report them on line 3. The amount included here might be eligible for the pension subtraction on lines 7 or 8.

- Dependent child income—the amount from IRS form 8814, line 14, or $1000, whichever is smaller. Include this income only if you elected to report your child's income on your federal income tax return.

- Charitable gross conservation easement—the amount of any charitable contribution taken as an IRS deduction that will be claimed as a gross conservation easement credit on the Colorado return. We recommend that you read publication FYI Income 39 if this applies to you.

- Alien labor—the amount of expenses for unauthorized alien labor services. We recommend that you read publication FYI Income 64 if this applies to you.
- Partnership/Fiduciary—the amount of any fiduciary adjustment or partnership modification that increases your federal taxable income.

Line 7 Pension and Annuity Subtraction

You might be eligible to subtract the income you earned from a pension or annuity. We recommend that you read publications FYI Income 18 and 25 if this applies to you. Enter the qualifying amount if you:

- Were age 65 or older, then you are entitled to subtract $24,000 or the total amount of your taxable pension/annuity income, whichever is smaller;

or

- Were at least 55 years, but not yet 65, then you are entitled to subtract $20,000 or the total amount of your taxable pension/annuity income, whichever is smaller;

or

- Were younger than 55 years, and you received pension/annuity income as a secondary beneficiary (widow, dependent child, etc.) due to the death of the person who earned the pension/annuity, then you are entitled to subtract $20,000 or the total amount of your secondary beneficiary taxable pension/annuity income, whichever is smaller. If this applies to you, please list the Social Security number of the deceased in the space provided.

Pension/annuity income should not be intermingled between spouses. Each spouse must meet the requirements for the subtraction separately and claim the subtraction only on their pension/annuity income. Any qualifying spouse pension/annuity income should be reported on line 8.

Submit copies of all 1099R and SSA-1099 statements with your return. Submit using Revenue Online or attach to your paper return.

Line 8 Spouse Pension and Annuity Subtraction

If the secondary taxpayer listed on a jointly filed return is eligible for the pension and annuity subtraction, enter the qualifying amount on this line. Review the instructions for line 7 to see what amount qualifies. We recommend that you read publication FYI Income 25 if this applies to you.

If only one spouse qualifies for the pension/annuity subtraction on a jointly filed return, take precautions to report the subtraction on the correct line. The first person listed on the return shall report on line 7 and the second person listed shall report on line 8.

Line 9 ^{FYI} Colorado Source Capital Gain Subtraction

You might be eligible to subtract the income you earned from a Colorado-source capital gain. We recommend that you read publication FYI Income 15 if this applies to you. The amount of this subtraction is limited to $100,000 and qualifies if the capital gain was:

Complete and submit the DR 1316. Revenue Online allows you to directly enter the DR 1316 by clicking the EDIT button. Paper filers should attach this form to their return. Take precaution to completely fill out each item of this form. Be as detailed as possible, especially when providing property descriptions, ownership, and dates of acquisition and sale.

Line 10 ^{FYI} Tuition Program Contribution

The 3 fields on line 10 should be left blank if the taxpayer and/or spouse are the CollegeInvest account owners who set up the account for the student beneficiary. If you are not the account owner (grandparent, friend) complete the 3 additional fields. To report contributions to more than one account you must file electronically. DO NOT deduct contributions made to a tuition savings plan for another state or any tuition you paid while attending school.

Line 11 ^{FYI} Qualifying Charitable Contributions

Taxpayers who make donations to charity, but do not claim federal itemized deductions on Schedule A of form 1040, might be eligible to deduct a portion of their donation on this form. We recommend that you read publication FYI Income 48 if this applies to you. Use the worksheet below to determine your qualifying contribution:

(a) Did you itemize your deductions on Schedule A of federal form 1040?	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>
(b) As an individual or a business, did you deduct charitable contributions on the federal form?	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>

(c) Enter the amount you could have deducted as charitable contributions on lines 16 and 17 of federal Schedule A.	$

For claims greater than $5,000, submit the receipts you received at the time of donation. For in-kind donations, submit an itemized list of the donated items and their fair market value. DO NOT send receipts of items that were purchased for donation. Submit using Revenue Online or attach to your paper return.

Submit copies of receipts for costs associated with wildfire mitigation for your property. Submit using Revenue Online or attach to your paper return.

Line 16 Colorado Marijuana Business Deduction

For Colorado-licensed marijuana businesses, list any expenditure that is eligible to be claimed as a federal income tax deduction but is disallowed by section 280E of the Internal Revenue Code because marijuana is a controlled substance under federal law.

To calculate this deduction, you must create pro forma federal schedule(s) for Business Profit or Loss as if the federal government would have allowed the expenditures from the marijuana business. The Colorado deduction shall be the difference between the profit/loss as calculated on the ACTUAL schedule(s) filed with the federal return and the pro forma schedule(s) described above. You must attach both the pro forma schedule(s) and the actual schedule(s) to your Colorado return to receive this deduction.

If you are filing a joint return and only one party is responsible for the unpaid debt, you may file a written claim to: Injured Spouse Desk, 1375 Sherman Street, Room 240, Denver CO 80261. Claims must include a copy of your federal income tax return or federal form 8379 and copies of all W-2, W-2G, or any 1099 statements received by both parties. DO NOT attach your claim to this return, it will not be processed.

Line 55 Net Amount Due

This amount is automatically calculated by Revenue Online, otherwise subtract line 34 from line 26. Also, if you made any donations to charitable organizations add line 53 to the subtotal. This is the amount you owe with this return. If you are filing after the due date (or valid extension), or you owe estimated tax penalty continue to the next line. If you are filing timely and do not owe penalty or interest, go to line 59.

Line 56 Delinquent Penalty

Calculate any penalty owed for delinquent filing or payment. The penalty is 5% of the net tax due for the first month after the due date, and ½% for each additional month past the due date. The maximum penalty is 12%. Or, if you prefer not to calculate this penalty, the Department will bill you if due.

Line 57 Delinquent Interest

Calculate any interest owed for delinquent filing or payment. The interest rate is 3% of the net tax due. Or, if you prefer not to calculate this interest, the Department will bill you if due. Interest on any bill issued that remains unpaid after 30 days of issuance will increase to 6%.

Line 58 Estimated Tax Penalty

To calculate this penalty, complete the DR 0204. Enter any estimated tax penalty owed on this line.

Scan and submit the DR 0204 through Revenue Online, E-Filer Attachments. Or, if filing on paper, attach the form to your paper form.

Line 59 Amount You Owe

Enter the sum of lines 55 through 59. You have three payment options:

- Pay Online—After submitting your return on Revenue Online, you will be given the opportunity to submit an online payment with your credit card, e-check, or by EFT. A nominal processing fee may apply. If you file a paper return, you may still choose to pay electronically. Visit our Web site for details.
- Pay by Mail—If filing by Revenue Online or other electronic filing method and you wish to send a check or money order, complete the DR 0900 and mail with your payment. Make payable to Colorado Department of Revenue, and clearly write your Social Security number and “2014 Form 104” on the memo line. Be sure to keep a copy of the money order or note the check number with your tax records. If filing a paper return, enclose your check or money order in the envelope provided and mail with your return.
- Payment Plan—The Department will issue a bill for any unpaid balance due. When you receive the bill you may set up a payment plan as instructed on the bill. Any assessment made by the Department will likely include delinquent payment penalty and interest. The only way to avoid paying penalty and interest is to pay in full before April 15, 2015.

Third Party Designee

You may authorize a person other than you (or your spouse) to discuss this tax return with the Department. This authorization is valid for any period of time, and can be revoked by you with a written statement to the Department. Revocations must designate that the Third Party Designee is being revoked and must be signed and dated by the taxpayer and/or designee. By completing this area of the return, you are granting the designee the ability to:

- Provide any missing information needed for the processing of your return; and
- Call the Department for information about your return, including the status of your refund or processing time; and
- Receive upon request copies of notices, bills or transcripts related to your return; and
- Respond on your behalf to notices about math errors, intercepts, and questions about the preparation of your return.

This designation does not allow the third party to receive your refund check, bind you to anything (including any additional tax liability), or otherwise represent you before the Colorado Department of Revenue. If you would like to expand the designee’s authorization, complete the DR 0145, Power of Attorney for Department-Administered Tax Matters and submit via Revenue Online.

Common Issues

Did Not Receive W-2 Statement from your employer

- Contact your employer to request a copy; or
- Your final paycheck stub should list the year-to-date (YTD) Colorado wages and withholding, which can be used to file using Revenue Online. Or, if filing a paper return, complete a Substitute W-2, DR 0084 and attach it to your return; or
- If neither option works, contact the IRS or the Department of Revenue, who might have your W-2 information available.

Records Retention

Keep all documentation you used to prepare your return at least 4 years after the due date, which is the statute of limitations for the Department to make changes to your return. However, if the Department does not receive your return, they may file one on your behalf using the best information available. There is no statute of limitations if a return is not filed.

Correcting Errors or Changing a Return

Individual income tax returns from 2009 and forward may be amended electronically through Revenue Online. Filing and amending returns in Revenue Online is a free service. You may amend online even if the original return was filed on paper. Revenue Online has all the information from your original return - you will not need to re-enter everything. If you cannot amend online, you may file the Form 104X. Make sure you use the appropriate form version for the year you are amending. If you are changing your Colorado return because the IRS made changes to your federal return, you must file Form 104X within 30 days of being notified by the IRS. You must amend your Colorado return in this case, even if there is no net change to your tax liability. It is very important that you submit all schedules and supporting documentation with your amended return EVEN IF YOU ARE NOT CHANGING THOSE VALUES.

Estimated Tax Requirements

If you expect next year's Colorado tax liability to be greater than $1,000 after subtracting credits, you should make estimated tax payments using Form 104EP. We recommend that you read publication FYI Income 51 for additional information.

Filing Errors and Incomplete Information

It is important to read all the information available for your specific tax situation and to submit all required documentation with your return. Failure to do so may result in delayed processing of your return and refund. We recommend that you file using Revenue Online to avoid common mathematical errors. You may also opt to use a commercial tax preparation software program at home or to use a paid tax professional to help you complete your return.

Federal Credit and Colorado Insurance Programs

Individuals whose income does not exceed certain thresholds and/or have qualifying children may be eligible for a refund resulting from the federal Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) and/or low-cost health insurance through Child Health Plan Plus (CHP+). You may obtain additional information regarding the EITC online at www.irs.gov or by calling Colorado United Way at 211. Additional information regarding CHP+ may be found at www.cchp.org or by calling 1-800-359-1991.

Colorado Income Tax Table

To find your tax from the table below, read down the taxable income column to the line containing your Colorado taxable income from line 19, Form 104. Then read across to the tax column and enter this amount on line 20, Form 104. Part-year residents and nonresidents enter tax on line 35, Form 104PN.

The Department of Revenue strives to find state budget savings wherever possible. We continue to offer the Revenue Online, a one-stop, secure, streamlined Web site where you file returns, free of charge, and make payments online by e-check or credit card. With Revenue Online you can also sign up for account access, much the same way you sign up for online banking. Once you have access to Revenue Online, you can send us a Secure Message and correspond online with us about your tax issues.

When you sign up to access your tax account in Revenue Online, you can also

- view the returns you've filed
- see your payment history
- change your address
- view your 1099-Gs issued by the department
- check your refund status
- request a payment plan
- file a protest
- amend your return
- upload documentation to go with your electronic filing
- add Third Party access to your account
- view letters that you have received from the department

It takes just a few minutes to sign up for Revenue Online. When you do, you will be pleased to see everything you can immediately do to resolve issues with your tax account.

Visit www.Colorado.gov/RevenueOnline to file your return and sign up for account access.

More than 80 percent of Colorado's 2.6 million taxpayers have filed their income tax returns electronically. Filing online and requesting Direct Deposit of your refund gets your money back to you faster than paper filing. More e-filed returns mean less costly paper processing for the state. Another cost-saving decision we have made is that we do not automatically mail income tax booklets. All our tax forms are on our Colorado Taxation Web site, www.TaxColorado.com so that you may download anything you need if you cannot file through Revenue Online or other e-filing services. If you don't have Internet access, we can send forms to you upon request. See page 20 for information about how to contact us.

The Department of Revenue is committed to finding ways to make tax filing easy for you while we work to save tax administration dollars. We believe Revenue Online and other cost-saving measures we have implemented will help us meet these goals and make state funding available for the services our citizens want and need.

Sincerely,

Barbara J. Brohl
Executive Director
Colorado Department of Revenue

2014 Extension Payment Voucher for Colorado Individual Income Tax (calendar year—Due April 15, 2015)

Automatic Filing Extension General Information

Colorado offers an automatic 6-month extension to file your income tax return if you cannot submit your return by the April 15 due date. This means that you can file your return by October 15 without filing this form. However, 90% of your tax MUST BE PAID by April 15. If you must wait until October 15 to file your return, use the following worksheet to calculate whether you need to remit a payment on April 15.

Persons Traveling or Residing Abroad

If you are traveling or residing outside the United States on April 15, the deadline for filing your return is June 16, 2015. If you need additional time to file your return, you will automatically have until October 15, 2015 to file. Interest is due on any payment received after April 15, 2015. To avoid any late payment penalties you must pay 90% of your tax liability by June 15, 2015. When filing your return, mark the appropriate box on Revenue Online or paper return.

Penalties and Interest

If a return is filed on extension and at least 90% of the tax is not paid by the April 15 due date, a late payment penalty and interest accruals will be assessed by the department. However, if all the terms of filing on extension are met, and the remaining tax is paid by October 15 the additional tax payment is subject to only interest accruals.

Pay Electronically

Taxpayers may pay online at www.Colorado.gov/RevenueOnline. Online payments reduce errors and provide instant payment confirmation. Revenue Online also allows users to submit various forms and to monitor their tax account.

EFT Debit and EFT Credit options are free services offered by the Department. EFT services require pre-registration before payments can be made.

Visit www.Colorado.gov/revenue/eft for more information.

The DR 0158-I is not required if an online payment is made. Please be advised that a nominal processing fee may apply to electronic payments.

Consumer Use Tax

What is Consumer Use tax?

In general, purchases are subject to tax. Most people are familiar with the sales tax added to the bottom of their receipts. However, when you buy something without paying sales tax to the seller, you must pay the tax yourself.

This is known as consumer use tax. Often, sales tax is not charged on merchandise purchased online or from a catalog, and therefore the purchase would be subject to consumer use tax. Additional information, including exemption information, can be found on the official Colorado Taxation Web site www.TaxColorado.com

The Department of Revenue collects the 2.9% Colorado state tax, as well as certain special district use taxes for which you may be liable.

When is Consumer Use tax due?

Consumer use tax can be paid by individuals on an annual basis, similarly to how you file your individual income tax return. Any merchandise purchased January to December that is subject to consumer use tax is due by April 15th the following year.

How to Pay Consumer Use tax

File the tax and make the payment through Revenue Online. Go to www.Colorado.gov/RevenueOnline > Individual > File a Return > Consumer Use Tax. Revenue Online will let you know which local use taxes are required and will give you the appropriate tax rates.
