with the association, the bill directs the department of local affairs to distribute any state moneys that it receives for funding volunteer firefighter pension plans to the association to be credited to the assets of the plan for which they were transferred.

The bill specifies the responsibilities of the association in connection with volunteer firefighter pension plans with which the association is affiliated, including investing the assets of the plan, collecting and accounting for contributions to the plan, distributing plan benefits, conducting actuarial valuations of the plan, maintaining records and fulfilling reporting requirements, and authorizing the payment of expenses of the plan from the assets of the plan.

The bill also specifies the responsibilities of the governing body of a volunteer firefighter pension plan that is affiliated with the association, including establishing eligibility for the plan and the amount of benefits for plan members and beneficiaries, electing options for the allocation of assets, maintaining records of the terms and provisions of the plan, determining benefit improvements, and certifying information required by the association to administer the plan benefits.

In addition, the bill states how the governing body of a volunteer firefighter pension plan may terminate its affiliation with the association and how the association may terminate its affiliation with a volunteer firefighter pension plan.
