Colorado State Fair Entertainment Tickets Now on Sale

Colorado's Largest Summer Event Celebrates 140 Years

PUEBLO, Colo. – From hot country tunes, to legendary beats, to top rodeo performers—there's a variety of crowd pleasing acts lined up for the 2012 Colorado State Fair. Fans can start planning their summer fun today; tickets to the largest summer event in Colorado go on sale at 10 a.m.

“This year, the Colorado State Fair is celebrating 140 years of providing a fun, educational opportunity for the people of Colorado; we're dedicated to supporting youth and agriculture and this year promises to be an exciting State Fair,” said State Fair General Manager, Chris Wiseman.

Tickets purchased prior to the day of show include gate admission which allows for a day full of free activities found at the fair. This includes free music stages, art shows, an exotic petting zoo, and a number of free family-oriented acts that perform throughout the fairgrounds. Plus—the sandcastle is back by popular demand!

Tickets may be purchased by visiting the Colorado State Fair box office, any Ticketmaster outlet, or by logging on to <http://www.ticketmaster.com/artist/872701>. To charge tickets by phone, call 1-800-745-3000.
