

F.J. "Rick" Dindinger earned a Juris Doctorate from the University of Denver College of Law, a M.A. in Theology from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary in Massachusetts and a B.S. in Business from the University of Colorado, Boulder. Mr. Dindinger has practiced law in Colorado since 1997, representing clients with cases before the State Personnel Board as well as in federal court, state court, administrative courts and arbitrations. He has argued cases before the Colorado Court of Appeals and the United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit. His practice has focused on employment matters, including discrimination, wage, whistleblower and others. In 2004-05, Mr. Dindinger worked as an Assistant Attorney General in the Civil Litigation and Employment Law Section of the Colorado Attorney General's Office. He left the Attorney General's Office when he was elected to the City Council for the City of Centennial, Colorado where he served two terms. He has authored publications in the Colorado Lawyer, the Colorado Courtroom Handbook for Civil Trials, the Practitioner's Guide to Colorado Employment Law, and the University of Denver Law Review.