

The changes reflected in this presentation are requests that were made by the PDPPC Group in July

The screenshot shows the 'Attendant Directory' website. At the top, there are five circular icons (C, D, A, S, S) and the title 'Attendant Directory'. Below this are three blue boxes with white text and green buttons: 'Consumer Directed Attendant Support Services help people stay in their homes.' with a 'Learn More>>' button; 'Find an Attendant Through Our Directory' with a 'Search Attendants>>' button; and 'Are you an attendant or looking for work in the attendant industry? Join Our Attendant Directory' with a 'Register With Us>>' button. The main content area has a white background with a blue header for the article: 'Consumer Direct Colorado has partnered with Health Care Policy and Financing to develop a network for connecting employers to potential CDASS Attendants.' The article text describes CDASS as an option in Colorado that empowers individuals to self-direct their services. It states that an individual participating in CDASS is the legal employer of record. The text continues: 'It is Consumer Direct's mission to provide quality services to employers so they can remain in their homes and communities. We strive to provide excellent customer service and simple tools that support success in managing attendants. The Attendant Directory is a tool to help employers connect with attendants who can support them with their quality of life in their home and community.' It also mentions that employers searching for attendants choose if they want to interview and hire a potential attendant, and that all potential attendants seeking work or current attendants seeking additional hours must register. At the bottom of the article are logos for 'CONSUMER DIRECT CARE NETWORK COLORADO', 'HCPF CO', and 'COLORADO Department of Health Care Policy & Financing'. On the right side of the page, there are two blue boxes: 'Potential Attendants' showing a profile for 'Doug' with 'Coverage Area: MT', and 'Attendants' with a green 'Login' button.

Sentence added at the request of the PDPPC group

“An individual, who may be a person with a disability or elderly and chooses to participate in CDASS, is the legal employer of record. As employers, individuals hire, train and manage attendants of their choice who best fit their unique needs”

Consumer Direct Attendant Support Services (CDASS)

CDASS is a Medicaid service option under the Home and Community Based Services Program. CDASS empowers employers to direct their own care needs rather than going through a traditional home health agency. Individuals who choose to participate in CDASS are the legal employer of record.

Under CDASS, the employer is responsible for training, supervising and scheduling attendants at their own discretion to meet their needs. The employer is able to set the wages for attendants within their monthly budget and decide where and when they receive services. A FMS provider of the employer's choice will assist with taxes, payroll and paperwork for the attendants the employer chooses to hire.

To access CDASS services and find out if you qualify, please contact the Single Entry Point agency in your area.
