

Phase III: Community Health Assessment Outline/Table of Contents

Sample A

Introduction

Acknowledgements

Executive Summary

Methodology

Community Description

- Population Characteristics
- Community Characteristics
- Economic, Physical, and Social Factors

Population Health Outcomes

- Quality of Life
- Morbidity
- Mortality

Health Behaviors and Conditions

- Nutrition
- Physical Activity
- Tobacco use/exposure
- Skin Cancer
- Injury
- Sexual Health
- Mental Health
- Health Conditions

Healthcare Access, Use, and Quality

- Received Needed Care
- Preventive Care
- Health Insurance Coverage
- Provider Availability

Community Input

Appendices

- Incorporation of Past Assessments
- Glossary
- Data Sources
- References

Conducting a community health assessment is one step toward the creation of a local public health improvement plan.

While publication of a formal document to present your findings is not required, this outline is offered for communities electing to do so.

