

STATE OF COLORADO

Platt - DPA, Doug <doug.platt@state.co.us>

---

limited English proficient Individuals

---

Jon Wilkerson <jongwilkerson@comcast.net>
To: doug.platt@state.co.us

Mon, Jun 17, 2019 at 9:39 AM

Hi Doug:

Regarding the proposed DORA rule change regarding interpreters, I do think that interpreters should be provided by the OAC. Most people who are not proficient in English are economically disadvantaged to begin with. To demand that they pay for interpreters (or that they are even capable of finding qualified interpreters) places a huge financial burden on them.

Thank you,

Jon Wilkerson