

H6J – COMPENSATION INSURANCE SPECIALIST

Title/Class Code	Education and Experience	Substitutions
COMPENSATION INSURANCE SPECIALIST INTERN H6J1IX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree.	Work experience in one or more of the following may be substituted year-for-year for the required education: public relations, social work, counseling and/or interviewing, job development, personnel administration, insurance or business management.
COMPENSATION INSURANCE SPECIALIST I H6J2TX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree plus six months' professional workers' compensation experience.	Work experience in one or more of the following may be substituted year-for-year for the required education: public relations, social work, counseling and/or interviewing, job development, personnel administration, insurance or business management.
COMPENSATION INSURANCE SPECIALIST II H6J3XX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree plus twelve months' professional worker's compensation experience.	Work experience in one or more of the following may be substituted year-for-year for the required education: public relations, social work, counseling and/or interviewing, job development, personnel administration, insurance or business management.
COMPENSATION INSURANCE SPECIALIST III H6J4XX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree plus two years professional workers' compensation experience, one year of which is specific to work area and which may vary by vacancy.	Work experience in one or more of the following may be substituted year-for-year for the required education: public relations, social work, counseling and/or interviewing, job development, personnel administration, insurance or business management.
COMPENSATION INSURANCE SPECIALIST IV H6J5XX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree plus three years professional workers' compensation experience, two years of which is specific to work area and which may vary by vacancy.	Work experience in one or more of the following may be substituted year-for-year for the required education: public relations, social work, counseling and/or interviewing, job development, personnel administration, insurance or business management.
COMPENSATION INSURANCE SPECIALIST V H6J6XX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree plus four years professional workers' compensation experience, three years of which is specific to work area and which may vary by vacancy.	Work experience in one or more of the following may be substituted year-for-year for the required education: public relations, social work, counseling and/or interviewing, job development, personnel administration, insurance or business management.
COMPENSATION INSURANCE SPECIALIST VI H6J7XX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree, plus five years professional workers' compensation experience, four years of which is specific to work area and which may vary by vacancy.	Work experience in one or more of the following may be substituted year-for-year for the required education: public relations, social work, counseling and/or interviewing, job development, personnel administration, insurance or business management.