

Justin Davis is from Grand Junction, Colorado and serves as a member from the 3rd Congressional District. He holds an active Certified Public Accountant license in Colorado.

Commissioner Davis is employed as a Fiscal Manager for Mesa County Sheriff's Office where his responsibilities include grant management, budget management, and internal and external financial reporting. Davis also does audit and financial statement quality control reviews on a contract basis for a CPA firm in Grand Junction that specializes in audits of local government and not-for-profit organizations in Colorado.

Previously, Davis worked for accounting firms in Grand Junction, Colorado, Cheyenne, Wyoming, and Las Vegas, Nevada for a total of 14 years doing financial statement audits of primarily local government organizations but also not-for-profits and others. During this time, he was promoted to Senior Audit Associate, then Audit Supervisor, then Audit Manager. He worked for a regional accounting firm in Las Vegas Nevada from 2003 to 2005 where he did financial statement audits and internal audit compliance testing for casinos located in Nevada, San Jose, California, and the Bahamas. He has held a CPA license since 2004.

Davis holds a Master and Bachelor of Science in Accountancy from Brigham Young University and received several academic awards and scholarships during his time there. Davis also serves as Board President for Redwood One Condominium Homeowners Association in Grand Junction, Colorado.