

Domestic Violence Resources and Programs for Victim Assistance

Do you need assistance?

There are programs throughout Colorado who provide assistance to people experiencing abuse from a partner or need other support with domestic violence issues. Provided below is a list of those programs and resources.

Colorado Resources

State Domestic Violence Program (DVP)

DVP is the sole government entity dedicated entirely to funding and sustaining community-based domestic violence programs across the state.

Website: www.colorado.gov/cdhs/dvp

Phone: 303-866-3150

Search for CO domestic violence crisis centers: www.colorado.gov/apps/cdhs/dva

Colorado Organization for Victims Assistance (COVA)

COVA is a membership organization committed to the fairness and healing of victims of crime and their communities through leadership, education, and advocacy.

Website: www.coloradocrimevictims.org

Phone: 303-861-1160

Colorado Coalition Against Domestic Violence (CCADV)

CCADV is a membership organization that provides leadership for policymakers, the media, and the community.

Website: www.ccadv.org

Phone: 303-831-9632

National Resources

National Coalition Against Domestic Violence (NCADV)

NCADV provides coalition building at the local, state, and national levels; support for domestic violence programs; education and technical assistance; and policy development.

Website: www.ncadv.org

National Domestic Violence Hotline (NDVH)

The Hotline is the only national domestic violence crisis line and provides crisis intervention, information and referrals to victims of domestic violence, perpetrators, friends, and families.

Website: www.thehotline.org

Phone: 1-800-799-SAFE (7233)

This page and resources are available to employees who may be experiencing domestic violence or know someone who is a victim or batterer.