

Rick Dindinger started serving as the Director of the State Personnel Board in August 2019. Prior to becoming Director, he served the Board as an Administrative Law Judge.

Rick has more than twenty years of legal experience. His practice focused on employment matters, administrative law, and commercial litigation. He represented clients before the State Personnel Board, the Merit Systems Protection Board, the Denver Career Services Board, the Colorado Judicial Department Personnel Board of Review, and the Office of the Presiding Disciplinary Judge. In 2004-05, he worked as an Assistant Attorney General in the Civil Litigation and Employment Law Section of the Colorado Attorney General's Office.

Rick's board experience includes eight years on the Centennial City Council, five years on the Board of Directors for the Arapahoe County Bar Association, and one year on the board of the Urban Drainage and Flood Control District. His civic activities include coaching competitive soccer and volunteering as a Stroke & Turn Judge for youth swim meets.

Rick earned a Juris Doctorate from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law in 1997 and is a member of the Order of St. Ives. He also received a Master's degree in Theology from Gordon-Conwell Seminary (1994) and a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from the University of Colorado Boulder (1989). Rick has hiked more than 50 fourteeners, soaked in multiple hot springs, skied A-Basin and Monarch, watched fireworks at Grand Lake, enjoyed concerts at Red Rocks, finished the Pike's Peak Ascent, and toured more than one microbrewery.
