Colorado Native Lagers are the only lagers brewed with 100% Colorado ingredients: barley grown in the San Luis Valley, Colorado-grown hops, Rocky Mountain water and the oldest variety of brewing yeast in the state. The majority of the barley and hops used to brew other Colorado beers comes from out-of-state. By using only Colorado-grown barley and hops we are supporting the Colorado agriculture community. We do not ship brewing ingredients into the state. Our bottles are made in Wheat Ridge, our cans are made in Golden and we do not sell our beer outside the state: this adds up to a smaller carbon footprint and a great tasting all Colorado beer.

Tingala

Susan Tews

(303) 663-86467

info@tingalaspirlits.com

www.tingalaspirlits.com

www.facebook.com/TingalaUSA/

Tingala® is a new kind of spirit, a tingling liqueur that is available only in Colorado. It makes a great gift for those looking for something truly different for the spirits lovers on their holiday list. Tingala is the first alcohol beverage in the U.S. made from flowers known as “buzz buttons” or “toothache plant.” This flower (also known as ‘spilantes’) has an intense, fun, buzzing mouth feel. Tingala is a delicious premium liqueur. Its flavors evolve on the palate, making it ideal for sipping or for use in cocktails. Unlike some other liqueurs, it is only lightly sweetened. It is made with fresh flowers, real crushed cinnamon and other natural ingredients. Tingala’s unique, electrifying mouth feel adds interest and can enhance other flavors and textures. Tingala is all natural and gluten free, and it is handcrafted and batch made in Denver, Colorado by a family business. Bringing tactile quality to cocktails-the way a drink feels-is an exciting new trend in the world of cocktails. You can find Tingala at major Denver-Boulder area liquor stores. Look for it in the store’s liqueurs aisle. Out of state shipping is available to some states. Tingala comes in a (375ml) gift size for around $32, or the bar size (750ml) for about $42. For cocktail and serving ideas, visit www.tingalaspirlits.com.

Blue Owl Preserves provides low-sugar jams made with organic ingredients. Jams are produced in Colorado Springs in small batches. I source organic fruit grown in Colorado, when seasonally available. With only 3 grams of sugar per serving (compared to as much as 12 grams in brand name varieties), these jams allow the full flavor and sweetness of the fruit to shine through. All jams are sweetened with organic cane sugar. No artificial sweeteners are used. Each jar comes with serving suggestions. For instance, try the Apricot Jam on a Havarti grilled cheese sandwich or swirl the Mixed Berry Jam with plain yogurt. Flavors vary throughout the season, but include Apricot, Peach, Mixed Berry, Blueberry Rhubarb, Blackberry Nectarine, Mango Lime, Spiced Pear Cranberry, Peach Habanero, Apple Butter and more.

Halliemae's Caramels are retro treats with a twist. Our caramels and sauces are all about nostalgia, amped up with great ingredients and technique. Fresh and creamy, Halliemae's Caramels are made with a ton of butter and cream, with flavors like Sea Salt, Whiskey Love Bomb (made with Colorado whiskey), and Espresso. Our small team makes everything in our Wheat Ridge production kitchen, a 1950's service station, and the packaging continues our retro theme, in bright colors that look like milk paint on a barn wall. The great flavors, exquisite texture and eye-catching packaging create memorable gifts. New this year: we're open every Saturday for shoppers to visit in person and see how we make our caramels.
