“How to Comply” with The Federal Worker Protection Standard

A Seminar for the Marijuana/Hemp Industry

Join the Colorado Department of Agriculture for an introduction to the Federal Worker Protection Standard (WPS). The Department will be holding six half day seminars to provide information to the marijuana/hemp industry and “How To Comply” with the Standard. These meetings will discuss the requirements to protect workers and handlers required by law. Materials for this meeting will be provided. These seminars are intended for Owners and Grow Managers responsible for the implementation and compliance of WPS in their facilities; not for employee training.

These Seminars will be held at:
