OPS STAFF PROFILE

Kristine Wilson

Kristine has recently taken over the Committee Meeting Organizer role for the Petroleum Storage Tank Committee. She is responsible for overseeing the meeting process, including scheduling, preparation, administration and presentation.

In the two years that Kristine Wilson has been with the Division of Oil and Public Safety, she has been a member of the Public Records Center team. As a member of the records center team, Kristine has been diligently working to prepare, scan and ensure the completeness of the documents held in the records center with the ultimate goal of having all records available for online review.
