

(Enter Issue)

[DATE]

Use the sections below to guide the development of an issue brief as part of quantitative data collection in a public health needs assessment process.

Incidence and Prevalence Data

Define the issue and include charts/tables/graphs showing data related to the issue.

Social Determinants of Health Data

Include data that describes the health inequities related to the issue.

Contributing Factors Data

Describe the factors that contribute to the issue and cite relevant data.

Current or Future Initiatives or Considerations

Describe current or future initiatives that address the issue or discuss related issues.

References

List references used in developing this issue brief.