

Legislative Records

Due to technical difficulties and deterioration of the tapes over time, some sessions were not recorded or are inaudible. Also, because of the rapid deterioration of both the tapes and the machines to play them on, un-transferred hearings before 2002 must be transferred to compact disc by trained archival staff. If the bill in question has already been transferred to compact disc, then an appointment can be made to listen at the Archives.