Subject: COMMUNICATION BRIEF
Update: Money Follows the Person-Colorado Choice Transitions
(MFP-CCT) Project Director Position

The Department of Health Care Policy and Financing wants to inform you that Sam Murillo, the Money Follows the Person-Colorado Choice Transitions (MFP-CCT) Project Director within the Office of Community Living, will be resigning his position effective September 15th, 2017. Sam and his family are moving out of state. Sam wants stakeholders to know that, while this has not been an easy decision for him, the MFP-CCT program is in a healthy place and is in line with Department plans for sustainability. Sam has led these efforts and believes strongly in the direction the program is headed. He also wants stakeholders to know how meaningful this position has been for him, given his family experience and community and policy advocacy work background.

Until his departure on September 15th, Sam can be reached at either (303) 866-6554 or sam.murillo@state.co.us should anyone have questions, concerns or thoughts to share with him.

The Department will hire someone to succeed Sam in the MFP-CCT Project Director position. After Sam's departure, you can direct any questions or comments about the MFP-CCT program to Tim Cortez, Manager of the Community options Section within the Office of Community Living, at Timothy.Cortez@state.co.us or (303) 866-3011.

The job posting for the Money Follows the Person-Colorado Choice Transitions (MFP-CCT) Project Director position is now available online at:
