COLORADO MOTOR VEHICLE DEALER BOARD

Policy # 17-001

In order to promote public confidence and the transparency of the Colorado Motor Vehicle Dealer Board's actions and decisions, it is the policy of the Board that no Board member shall individually communicate with any non-Board member regarding matters currently before the Board related to the following:

1. Active or completed investigations;
2. Pending disciplinary actions;
3. Applications for licensure for dealers or salespersons; and
4. Rule-making matters, once the first stakeholder meeting(s) is formally noticed for the specific rule(s) to be considered.

The above noted matters are of primary importance and must be discussed only in open sessions of the Board.

Policy No. 17-001 --- Approved, adopted, and made immediately effective by majority vote of the membership of the Colorado Motor Vehicle Dealer Board convened in public session on February 21, 2017. (Note: This policy replaces Policy No. 15-001 that was adopted on May 19, 2015)
