

Amanda (Mandy) Moorer was raised on a family farm 25 miles northeast of Sterling, Colorado. She graduated from the University of Colorado in Boulder in 2001 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology and continued her education at the University of Colorado Health Sciences Center graduating in 2003 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing.

Moorer began her nursing career in 2003 at the University of Colorado Hospital in the Surgical Intensive Care Unit. During her tenure there, Moorer advanced from an entry level Nurse Intern to a Level III Charge Nurse. After nearly a ten-year career in critical care, Moorer transitioned into the role of the Post-Baccalaureate Nurse Residency Program coordinator where she has served in this capacity for over two years. She has nationally presented and published her nursing projects.

Moorer currently resides in Westminster, Colorado, is married to her college sweetheart and they have two children, Marshall (3) and Malia (1).