June 13, 2014

On behalf of the Colorado Department of Revenue and the Executive Director, I am pleased to announce the appointment of Patrick Maroney as the Director of the Liquor & Tobacco Enforcement Division effective June 9, 2014. Patrick has been serving as the Acting Director of the Division since November 2013 when Don Burmania retired from state service.

Patrick has dedicated much of his professional career to public service with experience at both the County and State levels of government. Patrick has served in various capacities throughout his career including Sheriff's Deputy, Coroner's Investigator, Agent, Agent-in-Charge, Director of Security and Investigations, and Chief of Investigations. Patrick has had the privilege of working for organizations including Larimer County, Arapahoe County, the Colorado Bureau of Investigation, the Colorado Lottery and the Colorado Liquor & Tobacco Enforcement Division.

While Patrick has enjoyed a lot of variety in his work experience, his dedication and commitment to serving the public has remained a constant throughout his career. As was previously mentioned, Patrick has been serving as the acting Director of the Division for some time now and he has done a remarkable job in this acting capacity. In an effort to improve the Division's working relationships with both the liquor and tobacco industries, Patrick has taken it upon himself to meet one-on-one with many of the key industry stakeholders. Patrick has also worked closely with the Department in organizing a working group on voluntary compliance within the liquor industry.

Patrick shares the same values that the leadership at the Department champions; collaboration, transparency and customer service. Patrick will continue to work with industry stakeholders to foster strong working relationships and open communication. Under Patrick's leadership, he will continue to be open and transparent about our approach to regulation. Patrick will also remain customer focused and always mindful of ways to improve the customer experience and our ability to respond to customer needs. The Department is very excited to have someone in a leadership role at the Division that shares our same values and commitment to serving the business community and the citizens of Colorado.

Sincerely,

Ron Kammerzell
