Sterling, Fort Morgan driver license offices to offer services five days per week

April 26, 2016 – DENVER, Colo. – Beginning May 2, 2016 the Sterling and Fort Morgan state driver license offices will begin offering services five days per week at both locations. The two offices are currently open on a rotating basis throughout the week.

As a result of the expansion, the Sterling office, located at 714 W. Main St., will also have new business hours. The office will now open at 8 a.m. and close at 5 p.m. The Sterling office was previously open from 9 a.m. – 4 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The Fort Morgan office, located at 201 Ensign St., will continue to offer driver license services between 8 a.m. – 5 p.m. The office was previously open Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Additionally, appointments for several driver license services can now be made for both offices by calling 303-205-5901. Later this summer, customers will be able to schedule appointments online at www.colorado.gov/dmv.

Eligible Colorado residents who need to renew their driver license or identification card are encouraged to renew online at www.colorado.gov/vroom.
