Two helpful emergency preparedness programs offered in May

The Town of Estes Park's Senior Services Division is offering two helpful emergency preparedness programs in May at the Estes Park Senior Center, 220 Fourth Street. Both programs are free and open to the public, no advance registration is needed.

The Colorado Spirit Mountain Outreach Team will offer a Preparedness Presentation on Tuesday, May 12 at 1:00 p.m. Program topics will include preparedness ideas for spring run-off and the summer fire season; how to make a 72-hour preparedness kit for home and vehicle; how to identify the signs of stress and normal reactions people have in the year following a disaster; tips on how to take care of yourself; information for second home owners and county and federal information related to fire and flood recovery. For more information on the Colorado Spirit Mountain Outreach Team, call (970) 586-5585 or email them at floodoutreach@gmail.com.

Estes Park Emergency Services Dispatcher Michael McEndaffer will offer a program, Estes Park 911: What does it mean for you? on Tuesday, May 26 at 1:00 p.m. The program provide an overview of the Estes Park Emergency Communication Center and its staff; when you should or should not call 911; what to expect when calling 911; information on the Emergency Medical Dispatch process; information about the Reverse 911 alert system and more. He will provide helpful information on frequently asked questions, myths and facts about the 911 system. This program is provided by the Estes Park Police Department and its Emergency Communication Center.

For more information, please contact the Estes Park Senior Center at (970) 586-2996 or visit the Center at 220 Fourth Street, Monday through Friday between 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. Please visit the Senior Center website at www.estes.org/seniorcenter.
